UKRAINE ARMY GAINS AGAIN WEST OF KIEV

Vatutin's Forces Appear To Have Established Upper Hand After Five Weeks of Battling

SETTLEMENTS ARE TAKEN

By HENRY C. CASSIDY.

Moscow, Dec. 17.—(AP)—General Nikolai Vatutin's first Ukraine army appeared to have firmly established the upper hand west of Kiev today after more than five weeks of desperate fighting against heavy German infantry and tank attacks.

Russian counterattacks dislodged the enemy from several settlements in the Teterev river sector 55 miles west of the Ukraine capital for the second successive day yesterday, Russian communique said, enabling Vatutin's columns to resume their drive northwest of Radomysl.

Nazi Marshal Fritz von Mannstein's hold on that important stronghold, lying between the Korosten-Kiev and Zhitomir-Kiev main highways, is now seriously threatened by the Russian gains, dispatches from the front indicated.

Meanwhile Gen. Ivan S. Konev's second Ukraine army, 200 miles to the south, pressed its attack below captured Cherkasy toward the rail junction of Smela and repulsed fierce German counterattacks launched from the partly-encircled industrial city of Kirovograd, 65 miles southwest of Kremenchug.

(The German radio, admitting strong Russian counter-drives west of Kiev, announced at the same time that at least three Soviet offensives were now under way in White Russia, one south of Nevel, a second west of Krichev in the Mogilev area and the third southwest of Zhlobin. Berlin said heavy fighting was taking place on all three fronts, but that the Russians have failed to achieve material gains.)

Kitty Hawk Day Marred By Storm

Manteo, N. C., Dec. 17.—(AP)—Kill Devil Hill, virtually isolated from the rest of the world, proceeded nevertheless today with celebration of the 40th anniversary of the Wright brothers' first airplane flight, even though, on a sharply reduced scale.

The worst snowstorm in this section in 26 years blanketed the highway from Elizabeth City to the outer banks and the island with a six-foot snow drift, making bus and automobile transportation all but impossible.

Representatives of Governor J. M. Broughton's Kitty Hawk Day committee were already here, having arrived before the storm reached its height, but other officials were kept away when planes were grounded.

AP Correspondent Is Held In Poland

Baltimore, Dec. 17—(AP)—Mrs. Tracey Diggs of Linthicum Heights, Md., said today she had received a letter from her husband in a German prison camp disclosing that Larry Allen, Associated Press war correspondent, was confined in Poland.

Lieut. Frank Diggs wrote that Allen was a fellow prisoner in Oflag 64, in Poland near the village of Schubin. Allen was captured during an unsuccessful British naval landing in Libya, and held prisoner in Italy before the Allied invasion of that country. Diggs was taken prisoner after being wounded in the leg during the invasion of Sicily.

Pennsylvania residents 21 and older are entitled to a fifth and a pint of whiskey during the six-week period ending Dec. 31.

News from New Britain Indicates Little, If Any, Opposition After Brief Skirmishes

PATROLS BRANCH OUT

By MURLIN SPENCER

General MacArthur's Headquarters, New Guinea, Dec. 17.—(AP)—American troops that invaded the Arawe peninsula of New Britain island Wednesday are consolidating their positions, while the American air force has successfully repelled several Japanese air attacks.

The announcement from General Douglas MacArthur's headquarters was the first since the bulletins yesterday telling of the landing of army troops on the southwest coast of Japan's main island base in the southwest Pacific.

There were no further retails of the action at Arawe, but the announcement that Texas army units were consolidating their positions indicated there was little if any additional opposition after the brief skirmishes accompanying the amphibious landings.

Patrols are probably branching out into the rain-soaked jungle in reconnaissance missions seeking to contact the Japanese.

At the same time, MacArthur's headquarters announced that Australians on the western side of Vitiaz Strait were making "good progress" up the Huon peninsula of New Guinea and capture of Lakona was "imminent."

The American Sixth Army established its hold on the Arawe peninsula with but few casualties, considering the scope of the operation.

It was the first concerted action for the Sixth Army, commanded by Lt. Gen. Walter Krueger, and it won a strategically important position for the Allies, giving them command of the southern entrance to Vitiaz and Dampier Straits which separate New Britain from the northeast coast of New Guinea, now firmly held by the Australians.

A United States destroyer force under Rear Adm. Daniel Barbey pounded Arawe and the tiny islands at the entrance to the harbor before the first army assault troops shoved off in force for the shore. Heavy and medium bombers added their explosives to the ton of steel thrown at the enemy.

General MacArthur, directing the operation from a small island off the north coast of New Guinea, said not a plane of the American and Australian squadrons that supported the action was lost, nor was any of our naval or transport ships lost.

Sabotage In Eastern Area Officers Say

Philadelphia, Dec. 17—(AP)—The eastern military area, including Philadelphia, has been the "scene of acts of sobotage and is the most dangerous area we have at the present time," an army officer testified in U. S. district court.

The statement was made by Col. Paul J. McDonnell, assistant chief of staff, Eastern Defense Command, in charge of intelligence, in an open court hearing yesterday.

The hearing was held to review an army request for an order excluding Karl Scherzberg, 56, German-born real estate agent from the Eastern Military Area as "dangerous to national security."

Col. McDonnell told the court, "acts of sabotage have occurred in this area, but because of the danger of informing the enemy, I cannot mention anything other than this at the present time:"

He added, however, "this area is even more dangerous than the west coast."

Scherzberg resisted the army's request for an exclusion order and insisted that he was a loyal citizen, although he admitted that he was "glad the Germans chased the British out of France" and that he sent packages to German war prisoners in Canada last Christmas.

C. A. P. CAMPAIGN

Harrisburg, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Major William L. Anderson, commander of the Civil Air Patrol in Pennsylvania, said an assignment of nine new U. S. army planes to the CAP will be used in a campaign to recruit 20,000 aviation cadets in the state.

FRENCH ARE FIGHTING IN CENTRAL ITALY

Outstanding Successes Are Scored Against Germans In Mountain Engagement

BLAST RAILWAY YARDS

By WES GALLAGHER

Allied Headquarters, Algiers, Dec. 17—(AP)—French troops, entering the war on the European mainland for the first time since 1940, have scored outstanding successes against the Germans in mountain fighting in central Italy, it was announced today.

The French have been in forward positions alongside British and American soldiers for some time, but their presence was not disclosed until today's communique from Allied headquarters.

They are the same troops which fought alongside the Allies in Tunisia, but since then have been completedly re-equipped with American uniforms, guns and materials.

Soon after moving up to the battlefront the French participated in a series of local attacks, capturing several important German hilltop positions and taking a number of prisoners, who expressed surprise at finding the French in action.

Striking at enemy communication lines through the Alps for the second consecutive day, Allied heavy bombers blasted railway yards yesterday at Padua in northeastern Italy, it was announced today.

Aground New Zealand troops with the Eighth Army on the eastern section of the battlefront carried out a successful attack, headquarters said in its daily communique. Eighth Army forces also beat off two determined German counterattacks, inflicting heavy losses on the enemy.

The Fifth Army captured more important hills and repulsed an enemy counterattack west of Venafro. Fierce hand-to-hand fighting was reported in the San Pietro area.

Improvement Is Maintained By Churchill

By JUDSON Q. QUINN

London, Dec. 17—(AP)—Prime Minister Churchill will require a long period for recuperation from his second pneumonia attack in ten months and consequently it was expected today that Britain's war cabinet might name an acting leader to serve in his absence.

Information reaching London this afternoon said that improvement in the Prime Minister's conlition was being maintained.

There seemed general agreement that a long convalescence was in prospect for the stricken leader despite the incredible energy still apparent in his seventieth year (he observed his 69th birthday during the Teheran conference) and the driving force that raised the British Empire from the dark days of 1940 to the dawn of a day of victory.

Prayers went up throughout the nation for his quick recovery. King George VI arranged for a messenger to bring him hourly news.

Factory Workers To See War Film

Philadelphia, Dec. 17—(AP)—"War Department Peport," a thought provoking picture of war in the raw as American soldiers have found it on battle fronts around the world, as well as in the air and on the sea, has started a statewide tour of war factories to show the workers what must be done to win and why.

The 45-minute film had its public premier here yesterday before several hundred executives and business men who were asked by Undersecretary of War Robert P. Patterson to make it possible for every war-worker to see it.

The film, which is distributed through the Industrial Services Division, Bureau of Public Relations, War Department, Washington, shows actual scenes of fighting on all frients, picturing the living and even the dead and dying.

Known Dead In Carolina Wreck Is 70

Search for Bodies Goes Forward During Night In Light of Torches

OVER FIFTY ARE INJURED

By RALPH L. HOWLAND

Lumberton, N. C., Dec. 17—(AP)—The toll of known dead in the southeast's worst railroad disaster rose to 70 today as wreckers worked with little success to pry apart four telescoped passenger cars that still blocked the Atlantic Coast Line's double-track mainline from New York to Florida.

The body of an unidentified civilian was recovered from the wreckage early today. Red Cross and railroad officials here reported eight more bodies were believed locked in a section of one of the cars which had not been entered.

The four steel cars, stacked one on top of the other, were so jammed together that they were little bigger than one car is normally. The wrecking trains were able to move the pyramided coaches only six feet all night.

The double pileup of the two crack flyers produced a death list just short of that in the wreck of the Congressional Limited in Philadelphia last September when 80 persons lost their lives.

The toll of dead—48 servicemen and 21 civilians—was announced by Atlantic Coast Line Railroad headquarters at Wilmington. Upwards of 50 persons were injured, many seriously.

Enough of the mass of telescoped cars and twisted rails was expected to be moved today to permit resumption of normal traffic over the trunk A. C. L. lines.

The disaster occurred on the coldest day of the winter, in 10-

TOP OFFICIALS JOIN GREETING TO EXECUTIVE

Host of Senators and Congressmen of Both Major Parties Meet President at White House

CONFERENCES PLANNED

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL

Washington, Dec. 17—(AP)—Bronzed and smiling—but in need of a haircut—President Roosevelt came back home to the White House from his long trek into the Middle East today and found a tumultuous reception awaiting him there.

Members of the cabinet and other top officials of the government were assembled with a host of senators and congressmen of both major parties in the diplomatic reception room of the executive mansion to extend a noisy greeting.

After a general round of handshaking, Mr. Roosevelt got together with the congressional leaders to discuss the possibility of his appearing on Capitol Hill to report on his conferences at Cairo and Teheran. Speaker Fayburn said later the chief executive had decided he would not appear before congress until he delivers his annual message early next year.

Mr. Roosevelt looked tanned and fit after five weeks' absence and many of those who greeted him commented on how well he looked.

But to a veteran negro attendant at the White House who doubles as presidential barber, Mr. Roosevelt remarked: "I need a hair cut, John."

The chief executive came up to the south entrance of the White House shortly before 9:30 a. m. Mrs. Roosevelt and their daughter Anna Boettiger, were riding with him.

Girl Testifies In Sensational Mercer Trial

Mercer, Dec. 17—(AP)—Janice Graham, 20-year-old blonde farm girl, was on the witness stand for an hour and 20 minutes again today and testified William A. Morell threatened to choke her unless she fled with him from the scene of a triple murder on the Everett Wilson farm last October 7.

Morell, a 20-year-old farm hand, is charged with the slayings of his employer's wife, Helen, 48; the farm owner's mother, Mrs. Catherine Wilson, 78, and Robert McKay, another farm hand.

The Graham girl, in cross-examination by attorneys for Morell, again refused to answer questions about her conduct with Morell and her employer, Wilson.

She reiterated previous testimony that Morell tied and gagged her before the slayings.

Miss Graham, a maid on the Wilson farm and in whose company Morell was arrested in Ohio a few days after the slayings, was the principal witness for the state yesterday. She is charged with being an accessory after the fact and will be tried later.

Alias Santa Claus Becomes Sentimental Over Carol Sing

"Say folks" said Alias Santa as he invaded the editorial sanctum, "didja go to the carol sing at the Beaty school last night? You didn't! Well, I am disappointed in you as everyone should have heard those young voices united in the sweet songs of Christmas that have escoed down through times for scores of years. It was great and I sat there enthralled. If there is anything I love it's Christmas carols. And when they are sung by the lush voices of the young they are simply magnificent!

"And as the singing progressed I closed my eyes and when the sweet strains of "Oh, Little Town of Bethlehem" rang out I seemingly could see little towns over the county where lighted windows showed bright; where children lay sleeping and mother's eyes had a pained expression as if they feared the coming of Christmas morn with empty stockings for their kiddies. And I thought what a wondrous thing it would be if everyone could catch the vision that I had of Old Alias Santa and his helpers taking care of those stockings and leaving them fairly bursting with gifts and Christmas cheer. What a light there would be in the mother's eyes when the tiny socks were filled!

"But even if you were not at the Carol Sing and did not catch the vision as the old time airs rang out you can still help. Just bring or send a donation to the Alias Santa Fund at the Times-Mirror office and when "Silent Night, Holy Night" rings on the air you will have a sense of peace and satisfaction in your heart that only comes to those who have performed good deeds in helping a child or an unfortunate of the gladsome Christmas holiday".

And Old Alias, who so well knows the needs of the unfortunates of the vicinity slyly wiped away a tear from his eye, blew his nose lustily and said "I wish everyone could have caught that vision and heard those carols. I simply would not need to make another appeal."

Inquiry Into Pleasant Twp. Tragedy Ends

Monoxide Gas Poisoning From Defective Pipe Is Given As Cause

LAST RITES PLANNED

Under the direction of Coroner Ed Lowrey State Police have completed their probe into the deaths of Joseph Angelotti and Mrs. Doris Steiner, which took place some time during Thursday morning. The police had the death car towed to a local garage where it is being closely inspected for any leaks of monoxide gas that undoubtedly caused death. Close inspection at the garage showed that the exhaust pipe carrying off the fumes from the engine had a hole of considerable size in it.

This was found yesterday in a cursory examination made while the bodies were still in the car, the highway patrolman crawled under the car and investigated at the scene and he found the hole in the exhaust. Tape had been used to cover it but this had been burned badly and was of little effect in keeping the fumes from escaping. Undoubtedly while the car was in motion the fumes were fanned away but when parked with the engine running the fumes in all their subtle deadliness would rise into the car.

Angelotti and Mrs. Steiner were undoubtedly overcome without any realization of their tragic end.

Investigation by the State Police elicited the information that both the man and the woman had been in a West End restaurant until after one o'clock when they left, undoubtedly for the fatal ride to the spot where their bodies were discovered yesterday by Victor Fladry, of the Oakland cemetery.

Examination of the bodies by the coroner's physician bore out the

Threat of Shortage Of Trees Eases Up

Harrisburg, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Threats of a Christmas tree shortage in Pennsylvania are disappearing through increased use of the home-grown product instead of—as in other years—bringing 1,500,000 of the evergreens in from other states, the Department of Forests and Waters declared today.

"Anticipating a ready market and a possible shortage," Secretary James A. Kell explained, "private woodland owners have permitted vendors to cut trees on their lands for a small sum to overcome transportation difficulties."

Kell explained that many persons, anticipating a shortage, went into the vending business and cut trees on local woodlands.

The State Defense Council called attention to a War Production Board appeal to abandon in the interest of conservation all electric lighting of outdoor, community and inside commercial Christmas trees.

Annual Christmas Message From Vatican Dec. 24

At the Italian-Swiss Frontier, Dec. 17—(AP)—Pope Pius XII will broadcast his traditional Christmas message to the world from the Vatican radio Dec. 24 at 12:15 p. m. Rome time (7:15 a. m. Eastern War Time) over wave lengths 3106 and 1987.

Christmas Eve he will celebrate midnight mass which also will be broadcast, starting at 11 p. m. Rome time (6:00 p. m. Eastern War Time).

Although the Pope's annual Christmas address is awaited with interest, it is not generally believed that he will seek directly to influence the warring nations.

However, the intense activity of the head of the Catholic church in the past few days has fostered another series of rumors of peace negotiations. Informed Catholics generally discount these reports, declaring that all the Pontiff's efforts to mediate have failed and that the Vatican's efforts now are limited to charitable work.

Ring Champs Plan To Visit Boys Abroad

Washington, Dec. 17—(AP)—Sgt. Joe Louis Barrow, world's heavyweight boxing champion, will end his exhibition tour of army posts in this country January 20 and then go overseas to visit camps in various theaters of operations.

This was announced today by the War Department. Louis and his group are scheduled for 21 appearances between now and January 20 at camps in Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, Florida, South Carolina and North Carolina.

Traveling with Louis are Sgt. James Edgar, Corp. Walker Smith (Sugar Ray Robinson), Pvt. George Wilson (Jackie Wilson), Corp. Bob Smith and Corp. Robert J. Payne, trainer.

To date the group, traveling under direction of the Army Special Services Division, has visited more than 70 army installations in every section of the United States except the southeast.

The War Department said that by the end of the tour more than 630,000 soldiers will have witnessed the exhibitions with an average attendance of 7,000 at each appearance.

SIXTH MAJOR ASSAULT ON REICH CAPITAL

Stockholm Dispatches Say Berlin Is Burning Again Today After Two Weeks Respite

FLAMES REDDEN SKIES

By W. W. HERCHER

London, Dec. 17—(AP)—Stricken Berlin heaved up fields of flame and smoke last night as hundreds of giant, black RAF bombers loosed thunderous explosives on the Nazi nerve center for the 41st time this year.

Stockholm dispatches said the capital city was burning again today after a two weeks respite, the flames from her gutted buildings "reddening the sky." Telephone communication was irregular, and the capital's transport was reported paralyzed from streets choked with debris.

The sixth raid on the capital in a month was launched from Britain just after American Liberator and Flying Fortresses returned in twilight from their daylight raids on northwest Germany. The Eighth Air Force did not specify the American's target but the German communique said the fleets were over Helgoland Bay and "dropped a great number of high explosives and incendiary bombs on residential quarters in a number of localities in northwestern Germany" and Bremen. It acknowledged particularly heavy damage to Bremen itself, the big U-boat base which the Americans battered also on Nov. 26 and 29.

The degree of the Berlin assault—more than 1,500 long tons of bombs—and the determination with which it was pressed home despite the loss of 30 bombers, left no doubt that the RAF intends to finish the job of leveling what remains of the capital city's acres of factories, government buildings, financial institutions and warehouses.

With last night's attack, which came before bomb-exhausted Berliners had a chance to fall asleep, more than 15,000 tons of high explosives and incendiaries have been showered upon the blackened and shattered city.

One Toy for Each Child In Germany

Stockholm, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Dr. Paul Joseph Goebbels and his propaganda machine have begun preparing the war-weary German people for their gloomiest Christmas since 1939 by promising every child one toy—and a homemade one at that.

Goebbels, as spokesman for the Nazi Party, has acclaimed Christmas as a "test period" for the German people.

There will be lighted Christmas trees at those observances, but party spokesmen emphasized that there will be no presents given or received, except one toy to each child.

Millions of Hitler youth have been mobilized to make the playthings, mostly carved from wood—because there are no commercially manufactured toys on the German market this year.

RACKETEERS IN THE MEDICAL PROFESSION

Washington, Dec. 17—(AP)—It costs too much for a congressman to became a father maintains Representative Gross (R-Pa).

Gross, a York county, Pa., farmer told the house he had been informed that some Washington physicians charge legislators as much as $1,000 to bring their offspring into the world.

If the medical profession wants to avoid socialized medicine, he said, it "had better clean house of the racketeers within the profession.

Grangers Opposed To Food Subsidies

Williamsport, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Federal food subsidies were opposed by the Pennsylvania State Grange in a resolution which called them unsound and detrimental to farmers.

The Grange, at the concluding sessions of its 71st annual convention last night, also urged in resolutions that milk problems be handled through the State Department of Agriculture rather than through a Milk Control Commission and that farmers join with own organizations instead of with what the Grange called John L. Lewis' Dairymen's Union.

Opposition also was voiced to daylight saving time, to all forms of socialized medicine and to the liquor business.

Lacy School to Sponsor Boy Scout Troop

Approximately 100 members of Lacy PTA, meeting at the school building last evening, voted to sponsor a Boy Scout troop from that district and paid tribute to former Lacy students now serving in the armed forces.

Leo Gleese, Scout official, was heard in a short talk on Scouting after which the unit voted to sponsor the new troop. All boys between the ages of 9 and 15 years, living in that district, will be eligible to membership whether or not they attend Lacy school.

Following the business and routine reports, a program was given in honor of those in the service. Melda Olsen was accompanied by Ruth Ackert for a vocal solo, "Keep the Home Fires Burning". Father Salvatore Mitchell spoke on the relation of the school to the home in keeping the home fires burning for a permanent victory and Rev. S. R. Schieb presented the relationship of the home to the school in attaining the same goal.

Mrs. Nick Merenick and Miss Irene Peck, accompanied by Mrs. Harry Granquist, sang the National Hymn of Canada and "Battle Hymn of the Republic". Miss Olsen again appeared and sang "America the Beautiful".

Miss Effie Paterson, school principal, then unrolled the scroll bearing the names of 104 boys and one girl in the armed services and paid them a fine tribute. The national anthem was sung by the group to close the program.

Earlier in the evening, the attendance prize was awarded Miss Paterson's room, Christmas carols were directed by Frances Peterson and Mrs. Harold Nelson read the Christmas Story. At the close of the program, refreshments were served by Miss Olson's room.

Meet the Dilbert Dunker

"Dilbert" is the proverbial name of the Air Cadet who always does things wrong. To teach cadets how to escape if their plane is downed in water, officers at the Corpus Christi, Tex., Naval Air Training Center rigged up the "Dilbert Dunker" pictured above. A sawed-off two-seater plane, it is hoisted up, dropped in the swimming pool and quickly sinks. Fully-clothed trainees have 25 seconds in which to scramble out, salvage equipment, inflate life jackets and rubber raft. (Navy photo from NEA.)

Announcement is made that the fox hunt to be held Sunday will see the hunters gather at Don Finley's Store with their shotguns at 9:30 a. m. The start will be made from the store and it is hoped that several score will attend. Foxes are causing great loss of small game over this area and if this hunt is successful others will be held.

STORES OPEN TONIGHT

This evening for the first time the stores of the city will be open evenings to care for the Christmas trade. They will also be open Saturday evening and every evening next week until Friday when they will close at 6 o'clock. Christmas buying has been in progress for weeks and has been exceptionally steady and heavy.

SERVICES ARE BUSY

Both the postoffice and the express offices are just about the busiest places in town. Thousands of packages are being handled and the rush now is at its peak. The express company is handling a large volume of air express in the delivery of Christmas parcels which they will take for delivery until December 20th. The postoffice, too, is open evenings.

BUSES ARE LATE

During the past few days since real winter set in with its snow and ice the Greyhound buses have been running late, especially from the east where they cross the mountains. The West Ridge line has been maintaining schedules in good shape probably evidencing the fact that roads in this section are just a little better taken care of than in eastern sections. The Pennsylvania railroad has also been experiencing some difficulty in getting its mail and express trains through on schedule due to heavy business. The train from the east yesterday morning was five hours late and the train last night was over an hour late. The morning passenger train from the east was about on time yesterday and also today.

Anderson Saw Much Action In Paciic Area

Dean G. Anderson, seaman first class in the U. S. Navy, is another of Warren county's heroes to arrive home safely after many months of battling the Japs. Seaman Anderson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Anderson, of North Warren, and is on 22-day leave.

His ship was hit twice by Jap bombers in the South Pacific. He has been serving as gunner on one of the largest U. S. destroyers, his ship having been credited with shooting down many Jap planes and inflicting much damage to the enemy before finally being damaged.

He witnessed the loss of some of his buddies and saw many wounded. Seaman Anderson describes vividly the horror of emerging from his gun to see the ship afire, flooded by oil and apparently sinking. The crew members were highly praised by the captain for their bravery and untiring efforts that resulted in bringing the ship back to the States. He says: "The most wonderful feeling I have ever had was seeing the lights of Frisco coming in".

The young man also relates the happy experience of meeting a friend out in the Pacific. He and William C. Fales, of Pittsfield, enlisted at Buffalo on the same day and did not see each other again until their two ships tied together in the Pacific about a year later. They were permitted to visit on each other's boat and later were granted a liberty together in Hawaii.

Seaman Anderson is a graduate of Warren High School and enlisted at Buffalo September 25, 1942. He received his basic training in Rhode Island. He wears five gold stars for major battles and invasion.

He has many friends in the section who will wish him another safe return from duty when his leave is up.

Fire Chief Doesn't Want Santa Burned

Fire Chief Douglas Kropf is back on the job after a weeks absence from the city and one of the first things he has done is to issue a warning, "Don't celebrate Christmas by setting the house on fire".

The chief issues a warning of increased fire hazards this year because of wartime shortages of electrical wriing and replacement of parts. Old, frayed and defective wiring may be pressed into service with disastrous results.

Here are some tips from the Chief's handbook on how to avoid common Yuletide fire hazards:

1—Christmas tree. Keep the tree fresh by standing it in a pan of water. You can flameproof it, too, by sawing off the base at least one inch above the original cut and standing it in the following solution: 1 pound ammonium sulphate to 1½ pints of water. Keep tree in a cool place until it has absorbed most of the solution. Degree of fire resistance depends on the amount of the solution obserbed.

2—Wiring. Inspect carefully and repair or discard if defective.

3—Rubbish. Dispose of wrappings and empty boxes as soon as possible.

4—Candles. Don't use them on the Christmas tree.

5—Have all fire extinguishers in the home charged and ready for use. And above all if a fire does start summon the fire department as soon as possible. Call on the telephone and tell the firemen just how much of a fire you have. The emergency truck can be used at most small fires and the calling out of the heavy expensive apparatus is not necessary in nine out of ten cases.

Seaweeds are used in camouflage devised by the U. S. armed forces.

How to Make a Lot of People Happy

DIFFICULT TIME AHEAD

(By DeWitt MacKenzie, Associated Press War Analyst)

So at long last, after more than a year of bloody fighting among the stinking, disease infested jungles on the islands of the southwest Pacific, our gallant American troops have made a successful landing on New Britain, key position in that strategic portion of the Japanese perimeter of defense.

We have without undue losses established a bridgehead at Arawe, on the southeastern coast of his big, crescent-shaped island. That means we finally have forced one of the gateways of this important blockhouse. It's a grand piece of work and one that should lead to great things, but we should remember that we have only just got inside the gateway and that difficult operations lie ahead before the whole island is in our hands.

One of the most significant aspects of this new exhibition of Allied striking-power is that it emphasizes that we definitely have captured the initiative in Pacific warfare. This capture of Arawe, and other recent successes, presages the big scale offensive which is boiling up against the enemy. Our ability to embark on such an undertaking is, of course, due to our great naval and air superiority in the Pacific.

What we are aiming at on New Britain is the huge base at the port of Rabaul, on the northern horn of the crescent. This was second in importance to Japan's prize base of Truk, some 200 miles to the north, until the American air force got at Rabaul and so knocked it about that the Japs had to abandon it as a naval operating base.

The way it looks now, the capture of Arawe is for the purpose of establishing a new air base from which we can reach Rabaul and other Jap air fields on the island more readily and neutralize them. There is no indication that we intend to try to make an overland attack on Rabaul from Arawe.

THE CONFIDENT MANNER WINS

Always interested in figuring out why people behave as they do, Donald A. Laird, Sc. D., relates in Your Life an amusing incident which has to do with the effect a confident manner can have upon others. He tells it this way:

A skeptical acquaintance in the South doubted that one could get others to do almost anything if one had a confident manner. So he tested it. Lawrence Tibbett was singing that night in their largest theatre, and Lee took the occasion to test the powers of an assumed confident manner.

He put on his tuxedo, went to the theatre, and lounged around the stage door for a few minutes, smoking a cigarette. He flicked the butt into the gutter, and turned to the grizzled guard at the stage door.

"Looks like a good crowd tonight," Lee said as he started to walk through the stage entrance.

"We always get a good turnout for a star like your man, sir," the doorkeeper said, touching his hat.

A confident manner had worked well so far. But once inside the problem was different. Over there stood the star himself. Lee did not hesitate—he saw a small package which he picked up, and walked to Mr. Tibbett. He extended his hand.

"Is everything going all right?" Lee asked as he shook hands. They chatted for a few minutes. Then Lee handed him the package.

"Hold this for me a while," he said, and left. So far as he knows, the opera star may still be holding the package.

WAR-TIME CHRISTMAS

"Many families are puzzled as to whether to have a jolly Christmas at home when one of the family is overseas, especially if he is on one of the fighting lines," says an exchange on a question that is being freely discussed at the present time. "They don't like to spend money which would be held until the war is over, and they do not like to celebrate when he is in danger or discomfort." Then the following suggestion is offered:

Most of the Christmas money, without any doubt, should be put into bonds and stamps. And for grown-up families, rather quiet Christmases will no doubt be the order of the day. But there ought to be joy, and jolity, and that touch with the infinite which the Christmas magic never fails to bring.

As for families with children, Major Harlan Miller, now in England, has a word for it: "What will please overseas fathers most this year is that the family go ahead with a humdinger of a Christmas, just as if he were there to trip over the toys in person."

Now, more than ever, the spread of cheer is one of the best comforters.

What It Means

By HERMAN R. ALLEN

WASHINGTON — In central China, to the west and south of Lake Tungting, sprawls the "Rice Bowl," a system of fertile valleys and plains half as big as Texas.

Its principal cities are Changsha, to the south of the lake, and Changteh, 120 miles west of Changsha. The Japanese have big bases at Yo Chow, northeast of the lake, and at Ichang, some distance up the Yangtze river.

Four times the Japs have pushed into the Rice Bowl and four times they have been pushed back. Just what their object is has been a puzzler.

In October, 1939, the Japs drove down on Changsha from Yo Chow but were driven back without reaching the city.

In September, 1941, they succeeded in taking Changsha but were forced out after three days.

Disastrous Campaign

In January, 1942, in one of their most disastrous Chinese campaigns, 120,000 Japs succeeded in reaching Changsha, with 80,000 Chinese melting before them. The "melted" Chinese, however, spread out in the hills on the Jap flanks and suddenly became quite solid again. They cut the Jap supply lines and when the Japs were thus forced to retreat they swarmed down and attacked them from both sides. The Chinese claim to have killed or wounded 45,000 Japs.

This year the Japs finally got smart. They had been defeated three times at Changsha by troops sent from the Changteh area. So they decided to get Changteh first. Then move east and get Changsha. They sent their troops west from Yo Chow along the north shore of Lake Tungting and then south.

The campaign started last May, was stalled during the summer, regained fury in November. The fighting was so heavy that the Chinese claimed to have killed 10,000 Japs between Nov. 20 and 29, and the Japs claim to have killed 18,497 Chinese between Nov. 2 and Dec. 5. The battle was notable for the important part played by American flyers and for the fact that the Chinese accused the Japs of using poison gas.

See-Saw Affair

The Nipponese broke into the outskirts of Changteh Nov. 29 but were driven out Dec. 1. Since then the fighting has been a see-saw affair, with the Japs re-entering the city and the Chinese then driving them out.

You can get three opinions in Washington from persons who are acquainted with China as to what the Jap strategy is:

1. That the Japs are interested only in carrying off as much rice as they can and destroying the rest, do not wish to hold the area because to do so would extend their lines too far.

2. That these campaigns represent serious effort to capture and hold communication lines between Hunnan province (the rice bowl lies in Hunnan and Hopeh provinces) and Czechwan province, where Chungking, the provisional capital, is located.

3. A compromise opinion which admits that the Japs want to destroy the rice crops but that they would also like to hold the territory if they could do it with the forces sent on the expedition.

In other words, this opinion contends, if the Japs really wanted to move in on the area, and hold it, they could do so by sending a lot more men. Apparently they don't think it's worth a major expedition but would be very happy if they got a good break and could hold it with the relatively minor forces which they have been employing.

Actually, the first opinion seems to have the most support here. One military man, discussing the present campaign, told me "It looks as though this will follow the same pattern as previous years. That is, the Japs will get in, get what rice they can, and get out."

Hollywood Gossip

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD — Edward Arnold, the grand vizier of Bagdad, was entertaining Ronald Colman, the beggar-magician, for a scene in "Kismet" and the dialogue was bouncing along.

But Jimmy Flaster, the sound man, removed the lucite "beeps" from his ears and shook his head. "Arnold's going to blow," he whispered to us.

And Arnold "blew"—instantly. He stumbled on the word "Hassir," the mythical land of which Colman is supposed to be a prince.

We hailed Jimmy Flaster as a prophet, asked him whence came his mysterious power.

"We always know," he chuckled. "I could tell because Arnold started speeding up. We can tell, usually, about two lines ahead because the actor speeds up, apparently involuntarily, as he approaches a line he's not sure of."

• • •

SO WE picked up some more items of contemporary science, while the actors prepared to go through the scene again. A sound technician, said Jimmy Flaster, will know if a player needs a drink of water, if he has new bridge work, even if his tummy grumbles.

"Sometimes," he said, "a player's mouth will become dry but he won't ask for a drink of water because he doesn't want to hold up production, or because he doesn't know it's affecting his tones. We often have to suggest they take a drink."

And there are times when the sound man must be also a diplomat. One day Flaster suggested to a distinguished character actor that his "teeth seemed chattery."

"Oh," said the actor, unflustered by Flaster, "it must be my new dentures. I'll use my old ones." He made a quick change, and the sound track no longer picked up unexpected clicks.

THE sound man's enemy is the whisper. No matter whether it conveys the latest gossip or the most innocuous trivia, the whisper is hard on the technician's disposition and the movie's budget—for a whisper, says Jimmy, actually carries much farther and picks up more readily than ordinary conversation.

Of all the women with whom he has worked, Jimmy rates Hedy Lamarr easiest to record. She has excellent diction and enunciation and, because English is not her native tongue, she keeps trying for perfection. Colman ("precise speech, almost chiseled") and Arnold ("his voice is so rich—so schmaltzy") are among the top male voices in his catalogue.

It cost one company, Flaster recalls, several hundred dollars before one combination of words, innocent in type, came through properly. The expression was "new disarmament." It insisted on coming through as "nudist armament."

SUGAR GROVE

Sugar Grove, Dec. 16.—Howard Rathburn has been appointed acting postmaster of the Sugar Grove Postoffice. He has been appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the death of William C. Jamieson.

The annual Christmas Party of the Hill and Dale Garden Club was held Wednesday in the parlors of the Presbyterian Church, at Sugar Grove. A buffet dinner was served from a table with a center piece of Christmas greens and blue candles, with Mrs. R. S. Cumming presiding at the coffee table. After dinner, Mrs. Paul Lindell presided at a business meeting with the calendar for the year and the standing committees being read by the secretary. Mrs. Donald Haggerty was appointed to act as a representative of the club in making plans for a service club representing this community. Mrs. Clara Burgett announced the program. Several Christmas hymns were sung with Mrs. Delmar Mickleson acting as leader and Mrs. Kenneth Frank as pianist. Mrs. Harry Mahan read the Christmas Story from Luke and offered prayer. Readings were given by Mrs. Paul Lindell, Mrs. Fuller and Mrs. Burgett. Gifts from the tree were distributed by Mrs. Mitchell Mahan and Mrs. Frank Richmond. The dinner committee were Mrs. Ralph Abbott, Mrs. Harry Ludwick, Mrs. Stuart Andersen and Mrs. Ira Johnson.

Mrs. Stuart Andersen and Mrs. Scott Stuart entertained the Try Company of the Presbyterian Church, at a Christmas Party at the former's home Tuesday evening with nineteen present in spite of the very low temperature. Mrs. Agnes Abbott presided at the business meeting and Mrs. Carl Perrin conducted Christmas devotions, with Christmas Carols sung by the group with Mrs. Kenneth Frank accompanist. The gifts from a lovely white Christmas tree on the table were distributed by Mrs. C. L. Veness. Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

The members of the Embroidery Club were entertained at a Christmas Party in the form of a breakfast, Saturday morning at nine o'clock, at the home of Mrs. F. A. Schoonover, with Mrs. Jesse Thompson assisting hostess. Christmas decorations and candle light made the home and breakfast table beautiful. Gifts were exchanged and the members and several guests enjoyed the unusual affair.

Lt. Clarence L. Duell, son of Mrs. Lottie Duell of Sugar Grove, Pa, has been promoted to the rank of 1st Lieutenant. Lt. Duell has been serving with the Armed Forces since November, 1940. At present, he is stationed at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, and is Special Service Officer for the Special Training Unit at that station.

An Aviation Cadet's Big Moment

Flying has many thrills but no other equals the moment when an instructor taps an Aviation Cadet on the shoulder and says, "Take her up alone!" Here a fledgling at Randolph Field, Texas, is preparing to make his first solo flight in a 200-horsepower primary training plane. Soon he will be piloting planes of some 2,000-horsepower in the finest Air Force in the world.

"When you see one of our Warren boys wearing silver wings and the letters 'AC' on his lapel, you know he's headed for Aviation Cadet training with the U. S. Army Air Forces," Lt. Burkhard CAP said today.

"All over the country these winged emblems of the Air Corps Enlisted Reserve are blossoming forth on the lapels of proud young men if seventeen. It's great this patriotic movement, and one which spells disaster for the Axis. All of us are mighty proud of our young men who have chosen the Air Corps," he continued.

Lt. Burkhard CAP explained the set-up further. "As soon as he reaches the age of seventeen, a young man may apply for membership in the Air Corps Enlisted Reserve of the Army Air Forces. He takes his preliminary tests at once, and if he passes, may wear its emblem: silver wings with a blue medallion, on which are inscribed the letters 'AC'. The tests are stiff, naturally, because flying requires superior physical and mental equipment. Nevertheless, any alert-minded young man in good health should be able to make the grade.

"Some time after his eighteenth birthday, the young reservist is called up for Aviation Cadet training. It may be as much as six months after that birthday, if the time is needed for the completion of his current school term. The Army is anvious to have him stay in school, or at his regular civilian employment, until the time comes to start his active training.

"The consent of his parents is required, of course. But the vast majority of parents are proud and pleased when their son comes to them and says, 'Mom—Dad—I want to fly with the Army Air Forces!"

Kinzua, Dec. 13—The snow storms of the past few days have kept the cinder crews busy around here as the roads are very icy.

Mrs. C. A. Young is confined to her home with a bad cold and lagrippe.

The temperature around Kinzua for the last couple of mornings has been around zero.

Kinzua is having another siege of hunters. This time for the 3-day antlerless deer season. As I write this, gun fire can be plainly heard from the hillsides around the village.

A Christmas card was received from Pvt. Henry Miller who is stationed with the 6th Chem. Div. in Sicily.

"WAKE UP, AMERICA!"

Does Imperialism Help Civilization?

As debated by

Henry Noble Hall	Louis Fischer
Veteran British and American Newspaperman, Authority on International Affairs.	Author of forthcoming book "Empire," Internationally known writer and lecturer.

MR. HALL OPENS: Imperialism is the greatest civilizing force the world has ever known. At least 4/5ths of the human race can neither read nor write and are utterly incapable of governing themselves. They range from the savage Bhils and Santals, Kadirs and Irulas of India, the aboriginal bushmen of Australia, the cannibals of the South Pacific, the Pigmies of Central Africa, the low Mongolian forms of the Great Desert up to the educated Hindus, the colored people of the West Indies, the Arabs of North Africa and the Levant, the French Indo-Chinese and other native races that have acquired a thin veneer of democracy at Edinburgh, Paris and other universities. How are they to be gradually fitted for self-government and to take their place along side the highly civilized peoples of the United States, England, France, Poland and other Western nations which, for a thousand years and more, have slowly, generation by generation, fitted themselves for Democracy, for Government of the People, by the People and for the People? Only by Imperialism—which as far as the United States and Great Britain are concerned—is synonymous with Altruism, can this world be made better for the vast majority of mankind.

MR. FISCHER CHALLENGES: Imperialism is Altruism! The purpose of empires it to exploit colonies. If Imperialism did not, possession would have no sense. Official data shows industrial establishments in India employed a total of 1,940,477—in a country of 400 million inhabitants! India is held back to feed British home industries with raw materials, and British policy is to discourage establishment of colonial industries which might compete with home industries. Is it "Altruism" that Indian life expectancy is 27 years, in England 60; that 45% of the children born die before the age of 5; that only 3500 students study medicine in a country scourged by disease, malnutrition, and pestilence?

MR. HALL REPLIES: Altruism sure! Possession can be justified only if it is to the advantage of the governed. The U. S. spent 2 billion dollars and 45 years to bring democracy to the Filipinos. India is a headache, but would be far worse off were it not for British rule. Surely it is our duty to help our backward and benighted brethren, the "lesser breeds without the law." That duty will not have been fully discharged so long as there remains, anywhere on God's Earth, a single savage, the untutored tenant of neglected space. Alone Imperialism can bring truth, justice, honor and the Four Freedoms to mankind.

MR. FISCHER REPLIES: Imperialism retards progress and thereby gravely injures civilization. Empires are war-makers and slump-makers. It is bad for the world that 3/4ths of the human race should live like animals; that 2 billion humans eat, wear and enjoy little shelter or cultural necessities. This humanity constitutes an economic desert whose production and consumption is shamefully low. Empires — children of chance and conquest, built on the might of one nation, the weakness of their colonies—are not built on right. What right has England to rule India?—Japan to rule Manchuria or Burma?—Italy to rule Abyssinia? None! Empires are obsolete millstones around the necks of empires and colonies. The British argue that religious and caste differences bar the way to complete freedom for India. Yet the history of British imperialism and British laws, deeds and statutes points toward a deliberate policy to divide India. An imperial government can divide a colony indefinitely. Division then becomes an excuse for dependence. The end of imperialism will accelerate progress. It will not be easy. In 1931 Churchill said, ". . . the loss of India would be final and fatal to us . . . would reduce us to a minor power . . .". That is why India cannot be free to progress!

MR. HALL CHALLENGES: Of course it is bad for the world that 2 billion humans should live like animals; eat, wear and enjoy little shelter or "cultural necessities." That is how my ancestors lived 2,000 years ago. They painted their bodies blue and roamed naked in the woods of Britain. It was the Romans—those great Imperialists—who brought us civilization, opened our ports, planned our towns, built the very roads we use today. Judge Imperialism by results. One hundred years ago there were not 2,000 white men in New Zealand, which has been a self-governing and sovereign dominion of the British Commonwealth since 1931.

MR. FISCHER REPLIES: Mr. Hall's ancestors removed paint from their bodies, put shoes on their feet, clothes on their backs, roofs over their heads, automobiles on their roads through exploitation of empire slaves. Prime Minister Jan Christian Smuts just said, ". . . Britain is economically poor as against the vast resources of the Soviet Union and the U. S. . . . Should we not cease as Great Britain to be an island? . . . Should we not work with the small democracies in Western Europe? . . . Surely their place is with this member of the trinity . . . their future is with Great Britain and the next world-wide British system." Is this Imperialism, Mr. Hall, or "Altruism"?

ENTERTAINS FOR CLASS MEMBERS

Mrs. Gerda DeForest, 105 Conewango avenue, recently entertained at her home for the regular meeting of her class and a delightful Christmas party in which she was assisted by Mrs. Pearl McLean and Miss Harriet Wentz.

Mrs. John Swick led a beautiful devotional service in which all took part and Mrs. Floyd Bathurst accompanied for carol singing. At the close, all sang "Silent Night" and, with each member carrying a lighted candle, marched to a miniature church where White Gifts were deposited. A committee composed of Miss Olive Phillips, Mrs. Bathurst and Mrs. Gail Jones was appointed by the president, Mrs. F. P. MucCullough, to apportion the White Gift. It was decided by the class to give the quilt it has made to the Warren Visiting Nursing Association. After the meeting, gifts for "sunshine sisters" were distributed and a great deal of merriment resulted from an exchange of "white elephants" done up in brown bags.

Guests were then invited to the dining room, where a beautifully appointed table, with red roses as a centerpiece, awaited them. Decorations in keeping with the season were artistically carried out.

FAREWELL GIVEN FOR CHRISTMAS EVE BRIDE

Mrs. Harold E. Farrell, 313 Frank street, was hostess to a group of friends for a farewell party honoring Miss Jeanette Scott, who leaves tomorrow for Fort Ord, Calif., to become the Christmas Eve bride of Pfc. Franklin Farrell.

The table was decorated with miniature boots announcing the wedding date and a cake decorated with a bride and bridegroom. Miss Scott was presented a large boot with a purse of money from the following:

Mrs. Marge Schatzle, Mrs. John Casses, Mrs. George Baker, Mrs. E. Isabel Myers, Mrs. Harry Jones, Mrs. Ray Shepard, Miss Ann Sheppard, Miss Ethelyn Gilson, Mrs. Carolyn Sitler, Mrs. Kathryn Johnson, Mrs. Margaret Scott, Mrs. Glenn Sitler, Mrs. Loraine Brooks and the hostess.

First arrivals at the scene told of the injured crying "shoot me!", "kill me!" and begging for help and water.

The trains were crowded with holiday travelers. Scattered about the wreck scene were packages in Christmas wrapppings, and broken Christmas toys.

After the first derailment, some of the passengers built bonfires of newspapers to stop two southbound freight trains. They frantically endeavored by the same means to warn the northbound engineer, without succeeding.

Warren High Clashes With Strong Vincent Five Tonight

The Waves Are Fine

Ann and Jewel Bubrick, Carteret, N. J., WAVES, try salt-water brand on Miami Beach. The 22-year-old twins are yeomen at Opa Locka, Fla., Naval Air Station.

Colonels Offer Strong Attack; Dragons Set For Fifth Encounter

The Warren High and Strong Vincent High cage teams hit the Beaty Gym wood tonight in the third preview for the locals as to what competition they'll offer in their district league this year.

Maving up the game to 7:30 p. m., the two teams will clash at one of the earliest hours posted in years due to transportation difficulties for the opposing team and there will be a fast prelim at 6:45.

The Colonels haven't escaped unscathed this year in their circles, dropping a couple of games, one to the strong Bradford Owls by a sizeable score, in the early season, but they are heading for a string of wins now after finding themselves by dropping the Erie Tech team last Tuesday by 29 to 25.

Unlike Warren, the Colonels possess at least one standout star to offer the locals trouble in Bill McIntyre, lanky center, who hit the hoops for 17 points out of a possible 29 in their latest clash, while Warren this year, relies on a steady scoring aggregate with all as potential scorers but none really labeled as "hot".

With all the locals on the waiting list and no injuries to stem their growing tide, the Dragons are set for tonight intact and anxious to duplicate their last year's 40 to 32 victory over Strong Vincent.

Count Fleet Chosen Horse Of the Year

By SID FEDER.

New York, Dec. 17.—AP—By the most lop-sided margin in the eight-year history of their poll, the nation's sports writers today named Count Fleet "the horse of the year" for 1943—and the Count did less work for it than any of the seven previous winners.

Although he's been on vacation for six months and had only half-a-dozen trips to the post altogether in his victorious campaign, the Fleet came in all by himself with the year's top honors in the annual poll of writers and broadcasters conducted by the turf and sports digest to be published Monday in the Magazine's January issue.

Eclipsing even the sweep that hard-working Seabiscuit registered in 1938 and the "double" busy Whirlaway chalked up in '41 and '42, John D. Hertz's triple crown winner was named head man by 135 of the 143 voters, against two each for Market Wise and Slide Rul and one apiece for Thumbs Up and Occupy. The nomination was blank on two ballots.

Angott Is 13-5 Favorite For Ruffin Fight

By JACK HAND.

New York, Dec. 17.—AP—"Retiring" Sammy Angott of Washington, Pa. is a 13 to 5 favorite to give the lightweight title pretzel another twist tonight as the N. B. A.-blessed champ goes to the post against Bobby Ruffin, the Astoria (N. Y.) artist who holds a decision over Beau Jack, New York's titleholder.

Angott's laurels will not be on the block as both boys are coming in for the Madison Square Garden 10-rounder over the 135-pound division limit. Mike Jacobs expects 14,000 and $40,000.

It promises to be the most unorthodox spectacle since Lil' David rocked Goliath to sleep with a sling shot although not quite as decisive. Sammy is a hit and hold performer who doesn't get the cheers from the mob but usually gets the votes from the mob but usually gets the votes from the judges. Ruffin's style is just as confusing to the faithful.

The bout itself comes as an anti-climax to a week of bickering and public debates featuring Maurie Waxman, spokesman for Ruffin and Chick Wergeles, who handles Beau Jack's business affairs. It all revolves around the principals and payoff for a later Garden date that is supposed to bring a rematch of Bobby and the Beau but may be shuffled when tonight's returns are in.

The Nation Wide Stores by toppling the Olson Bjers Service for three points threw the league into a tie for the leadership as the Keyston Gas took four points from the Times Square Service, Bleech's 566 led the Nation Wide and Inter's 543 led the losers. SERVICE ALL-AMERICA 1943

SPORTS ROUND-UP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

Ne York, Dec. 17—(AP)—Attention football coaches: Since you'll all probably be counting heavily on freshmen next season, take a look at a few of these high school standouts of 1943 . . . Dinkey Brown, 175-pound halfback from Greenville, Miss., apparently took the season's scoring honors. He scored 30 touchdowns and place-kicked 47 extra points for 227 points in ten game . . . Dinkey also passed for 14 scores, two of them hen his team as trailing Holy Cross 19-7 in the last quarter of the New Orleans Toy Bowl game . . . in spite of that, Thomas "Shorty" McWilliams of Meridian was named the most outstanding player in the big eight conference (which has 14 teams). Shorty also made 30 touchdowns, averaging 36 yards on each scoring run, passed for eight more, averaged about 40 yards on punt and backed up the line on defense.

The Other Foot . .

Among the standout place-kickers of the prep season was Bob Fidler of Ashland, Ky., ho converted 31 extra points to equal his 1942 total. He missed 23 in two years . . . J. C. Kennard, captain and high scorer (138 points) for Ashland, carried the ball 36 times on his team's 37 attempts in one game and scored four times. He enlisted in the navy air corps to escape the college scouts . . . Then there's Sheldon Homer of Fallon, Nev., who carried the ball four times on end around plays against Sparks High and made four touchdowns on runs of 74, 56, 47 and 31 yards . . . He was just copying his coach, Wes Goodner, who once worked the play three times in one game to score for the University of Nevada.

Tough Decision

Bill Summers, the American League umpire, ran into a real puzzler this fall when a kid asked him what would be the verdict i a batsman hit a pitched ball, th ball broke in half and one piec was caught by the first baseme while the other half fell in fai territory . . . Instead of answerin offhand, Summers secured a bal wedged it firmly on a chop an black and took a whack at it wit an axe . . . The axe cut throug the cover and yarn, but when i struck the rubber core it bounce back . . . So Bill decided h wouldn't have to worry about the problem any more.

One-Minute Sports Page

With only seven exhibitio games scheduled for next spring the Dodgers likely will play on of them for the benefit of the Re Cross . . . Besides coaching at Ur ion College and playing footba for the pro Giants on Sunday Mel Hein finds time to play bas ketball in the YMCA senior bas ketball league at Schenectady, N Y. Mel scored 18 points in his firs game. One of his teammates is A Ciampe, who played on Colu bia's Rose Bowl team . . . Ch Royal, AP feature service sport

Covering the Sports Front

—WITH—
BOB JOHNSON

The snowfall of the past two days has covered the myriads of bloody trails in the Pennsylvania woodlands and so ends another deer season with little evidence, except countless fox tracks, left to tell of the hundreds of pounds of unrationed meat dragged out of the forests this year.

Lost hunters, coroners reports, big bucks, little bucks, unbelievable stories and the rest are over for another year and the nimrods can return home to dream of the next.

Whether it was a successful season remains to be told—and seen—Deer seem still plentiful in the woods and there's no doubt but what the doe season will do wonders for the browsing of small game.

The Warren Field and Stream Club, ever trying to improve the hunting and fishing in the county, are staging a real honest-to-goodness for hunt Sunday between Sugar Grove and Lander.

Minus the red coats, derbys and thoroughbred horses they will take to the woods for a drive and shoot that should deplete the fox in that section back to where his numbers don't cause so much trouble—

If you're kicking about the past small game season, do something about it—come along—See you at Don Finley's store between 9 and 9:30—Bring the shotgun.

Craig Wood In Top Spot For Second Round

By BERT COLLIER

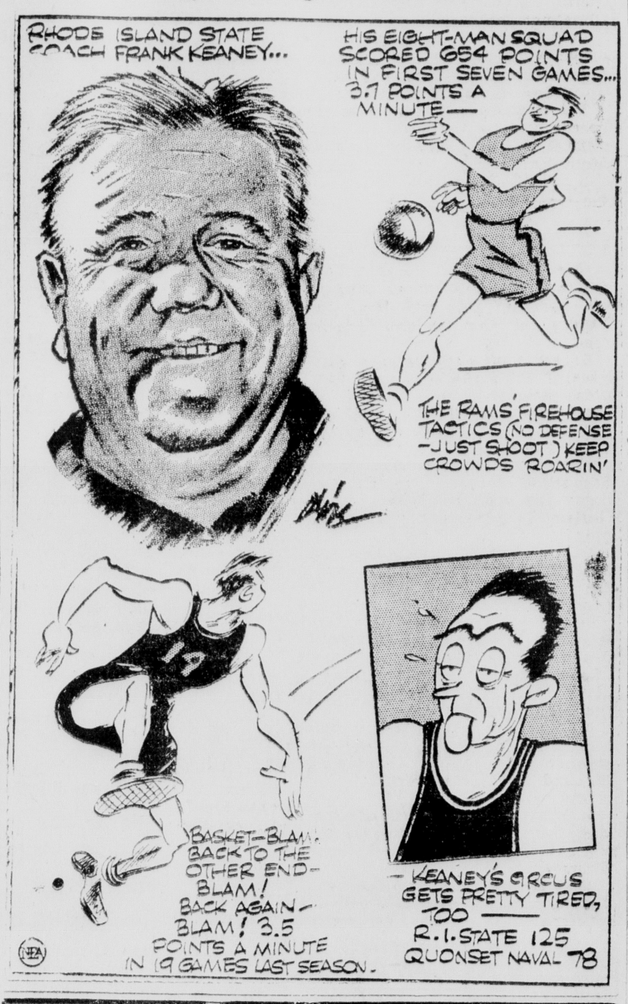
Miami, Fla., Dec. 17.—AP—The uncanny putting of Craig Wood, duration national open champion, was the talk of the galleries with the blond blaster from Mamaroneck, N. Y., starting the second round of the Miami open today in first spot by a stroke.

Wood carded a 34-34—68 for the best first-day showing over the Miami spring layout despite a biting wind and drizzling rain that sent many scores kiting.

Only Wood and Steve Warga, Jr., of Miami, who had a 32-37—69, bettered par and all but five of the field of 124 were over the mark. The small greens put a premium on putting and Wood was master there.

General Chairman H. H. Arnold stuck to his prediction that 278 for the 72 holes would capture the $1,000 in war bonds that goes to the winner. But he shortened his list of potential victors to three.

Speaking of Points



"Our family . . . your family . . . all Americans are working hard for Victory—working harder than ever before. To keep doing our best, we must never let fatigue tension get the upper hand. Before that happens, it's wise to say . . . 'Let's all fresh up with 7-Up'. Your family, too, will enjoy 7-Up's clean-tasting, exclusive flavor. You like 7-Up—and 7-Up likes you."

GARLAND

Garland, Dec. 13.—Born to Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Tresler, Tuesday night, a baby daughter. On Friday the young father left for service in the United States army. Mrs. Tresler, formerly was Fay Black, daughter of Gertie Black of this place.

Mrs. H. G. Irwin, Sr., has been ill and under the doctor's care but is improving, her friends will be glad to learn.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Leofsky took their young son to Warren Friday where he with others were sent on their way to join the Navy.

A strong wind brought a heavy snow fall Friday night and the springlike weather seems to be at an end for the time being.

H. G. Irwin Jr. is the only hunter to date in the village to bring in a deer, although several have been brought in, in this vicinity.

Raymond Tripp is putting up a mill on Hamilton Road, which he plans to put into operation soon.

Norman Taylor went to Corry Wednesday to meet Robert Upton who was returning from Cleveland where he had been under observation in a clinic. Friends sincerely hope his condition will now improve.

Mrs. William McCollough is much improved in health and has been able to go to her own home after being cared for in the home of her daughter, Mrs. William Gray.

Orrie Weller is staying at the home of the Ransom's in Spring Creek.

Walter Taydus, who has been for some time with the medical corp of the army is at home for his first furlough. Walter looks unusually well, and is very enthusiastic about the fine training he is receiving. His division is now stationed in Arizona.

The Bristow family received the happy news of a baby daughter born to Mr. and Mrs. Tom Yates of Erie. Mrs. Yates was formerly Betty Bristow. The young miss has been named Julie Alice. The family made a trip to Erie in honor of the event.

Word has reached Garland of the death of Ella Reeves. Her sister, Margaret Kelsey, just a few days ago, was laid to rest. These sisters were members of an old Garland family. The Patrick Jordans. The homestead on Hamilton Road is now owned by Mr. and Mrs. Burt Graham. Their sudden passing calls to mind how rapidly the older generation is going, leaving behind their homes, which are so filled with memories dear to the hearts of the younger residents. Sympathy is extended the other members of the family.

Mrs. Jay Goodwill has returned from the hospital where she underwent an operation.

Mr. Mireno of Titusville, occupying his lodge on Hasmer Run, brought in a big buck on Saturday.

The Bristow sisters were in Warren on business Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ingram of Erie visited their daughter, Mrs. Arthur Kane and family over the weekend.

Winter has again come to the Brokenstraw Valley.

Mrs. Gertie Black was in Warren recently with her three children making arrangements to have their tonsils removed.

A parade of doe hunters went through the village early Monday morning.

Mrs. H. Hill writes her parents that they are now located in Tennessee but that she doesn't like it and may come back leaving Mr. Hill there for the present.

The death of Leon Connelly of Warren called to mind the Connelly family at Pittsfield where Leon was born. Mr. Connelly, the father, was a pharmacist and conducted a drug and general store at Pittsfield. He owned the house now owned and occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Milton Ellis. He is a cousin of Mrs. Frank Murphy and Mrs. Lynn Chaffee of iPttsfield.

Stanley Leofsky is laid up with a bad leg.

Teddy and Audrey Smith visited their aunt Ida N. Taylor on Saturday.

Mabel Johnson is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Arch Bristow in Warren.

Mrs. Black and young son were recent Warren visitors.

Mrs. Chris Lund and daughter, Mrs. Chas. Lacock have gone to Cleveland where the latter will undergo treatment in the Cleveland Clinic.

Passaro Is Honored At Faculty Party

Youngsville, Dec. 17. — The Youngsville School Faculty held their annual Christmas party Thursday evening of this week at the National Forge Club house. A delicious dinner was enjoyed prepared by a committee of members with tables appropriately decorated for the Christmas season. The party especially honored Joseph Passaro, Youngsville high school athletic coach. Mr. Passaro was presented a gift from his fellow members of the faculty. This evening (Friday) Mr. Passaro will act for the last time this season as local basketball coach when Sheffield plays basketball with Youngsville on the Youngsville court. His last day of teaching, for the present at least in Youngsville school, will be Monday of next week and on Dec. 28th he will leave Youngsville to take up his duties in the U. S. armed service when he will leave a host of local friends in the school and community.

Following the dinner Thursday evening the faculty enjoyed a merry evening with games and music. Youngsville school Christmas vacation begins on Wednesday and Dec. 22nd extends to Monday Jan. 3rd.

CHRISTMAS PROGRAMS

At the United Brethren Church next Sunday night, Dec. 19th at 7:30 p. m. the choir of thirty voices will sing the Christmas Cantata, "The Chorus of the Skies". Solo parts will be sung by Miss Treva McKinney, Mrs. Vivian Gilliland and Mr. Dallas Haight. There will be a ladies' two part chorus and a men's unison chorus. Soprano and contralto duet will be sung by Miss Audress Smith and Mrs. Vivian Gilliland.

The choir has been working faithfully for weeks under the direction of the pastor, Rev. C. M. McIntyre. The accompanist is Miss Treva McKinney. The offering will be for the Quinsy Orphanage and Home where 50 aged people and 150 children are domiciled by the church.

This service is not to be confused with Saron Lutheran Choir cantata which is given on the same day at 4:30 p. m. in the Saron Lutheran Church though both have the same title for their cantatas.

COMMUNITY SING

Under the sponsorship of the PTA, the annual community sing will be held in the high school auditorium Tuesday evening, December 21, with Miss Lilly Wood in charge.

The program will open with a Christmas hymn, followed by the invocation by Rev. Charles McIntyre, pastor of the United Brethren church. This will be followed by numbers from the choir of Youngsville's four churches. Each church will provide two special numbers.

Rev. Dwight Jack, pastor of the Methodist church, will read the Scripture lesson and Rev. Wallace Johnson, pastor of the Saron Lutheran church, will bring a short Christmas message.

Part two of the program will be presented by the entire assembly and will consist of the singing of Christmas carols by all present.

The program will close with the benediction pronounced by Rev. Samuel Stimer, pastor of the Free Methodist church.

Borough Schools Start Vacation

With the close of classes this afternoon, Warren borough schools started their Christmas vacation period, classes to be resumed on Monday morning, January 3.

At the high school this morning, the a cappella choir sang under the direction of Miss Twila Hoover for a double assembly and at Beaty junior high this afternoon there was a musicale and Christmas parties.

Most of the grade schools had planned carol sings or programs of some sort to mark the closing and approach of the holiday.

One of the highlights of the season was the very successful Christmas Carol Sing held at Beaty school last evening, when Directors Twila Hoover and Harry Summers presented their young musicians in a fine program and led group singing of familiar carols by the large audience.

fact that carbon monoxide gas was the cause of death. There were no marks on the body or any other indication that foul play may have been the cause of death. No stomach analysis was made as this was not considered necessary after the examination made.

Mrs. Steiner roomed on Fourth avenue and at her room there was only a quantity of personal effects, dresses, etc. In her purse there was only a small sum of money and a quantity of letters. The purse was taken in charge by the State Police officers investigating the case.

The woman was born near Natchez, Miss., and her parents reside at Pine Ridge. A telegram sent to them yesterday brought a reply this morning. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Cobb, are making arrangements for the funeral. Foster funeral home at Natchez, Miss., will handle the body there and it will be shipped this evening.

Mrs. Steiner has four children that are being cared for by county authorities and she also has a number of brothers and sisters. Two daughters will be brought here this afternoon and a brief prayer service will be held at the Gibson funeral home by the Rev. Beecher M. Rutledge, of Trinity Memorial church.

Joseph John Angelotti will be buried from St. Joseph's church Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. Interment will be made in the St. Joseph's cemetery. He is survived by his wife, Ann DeMarco Angelotti, and two daughters, Gloria and Joan, at home. Other relatives surviving are his father, Remigo Angelotti; two brothers, Leo and John, and one sister, Mrs. Marie Bruno, all of Erie.

With the Fifth Army in Italy, Dec. 16—(Delayed) — (AP)—The Germans have rushed mountain troops from Russia and put them into the battle line to help bolster defenses against heavy pressure by the Fifth Army, it was disclosed today.

They were identified as mountain-trained troops which last were heard of near Leningrad about Nov. 1.

In addition, the enemy also has moved up a battle group composed of infantry plus artillery to reinforce the sector held by the 15th armored Grenadiers who were pretty well chewed up by American troops in Sicily.

Top Officials Join Greeting To Executive

Mr. Roosevelt arranged a series of important conferences shortly after his return, the first with diplomats representing Britain, China, Russia, Turkey, Iran and Egypt, the nations which Mr. Roosevelt visited or whose chiefs he conferred with on his trip.

Secretary Hull was his luncheon guest and was staying on for a cabinet meeting at 2 p. m.

A press conference was scheduled for 4 p. m.

The Dakar radio disclosed today that Mr. Roosevelt boarded a French ship in Dakar harbor on his homeward journey. The broadcast, recorded by the U. S. Foreign Broadcast Intelligence Service, said Mr. Roosevelt visited Dakar in French West Africa Dec. 9 with Admiral William D. Leahy.

They arrived at Dakar by plane, conferred with French officials, and boarded a French ship which took them from Dakar to a rendezvous with a U. S. warship designated to carry the president home.

UKRAINE ARMY GAINS AGAIN WEST OF KIEV

Vatutin's Forces Appear To Have Established Upper Hand After Five Weeks of Battling

SETTLEMENTS ARE TAKEN

By HENRY C. CASSIDY.

Moscow, Dec. 17.—(AP)—General Nikolai Vatutin's first Ukraine army appeared to have firmly established the upper hand west of Kiev today after more than five weeks of desperate fighting against heavy German infantry and tank attacks.

Russian counterattacks dislodged the enemy from several settlements in the Teterev river sector 55 miles west of the Ukraine capital for the second successive day yesterday, Russian communique said, enabling Vatutin's columns to resume their drive northwest of Radomysl.

Nazi Marshal Fritz von Mannstein's hold on that important stronghold, lying between the Korosten-Kiev and Zhitomir-Kiev main highways, is now seriously threatened by the Russian gains, dispatches from the front indicated.

Meanwhile Gen. Ivan S. Konev's second Ukraine army, 200 miles to the south, pressed its attack below captured Cherkasy toward the rail junction of Smela and repulsed fierce German counterattacks launched from the partly-encircled industrial city of Kirovograd, 65 miles southwest of Kremenchug.

(The German radio, admitting strong Russian counter-drives west of Kiev, announced at the same time that at least three Soviet offensives were now under way in White Russia, one south of Nevel, a second west of Krichev in the Mogilev area and the third southwest of Zhlobin. Berlin said heavy fighting was taking place on all three fronts, but that the Russians have failed to achieve material gains.)

Kitty Hawk Day Marred By Storm

Manteo, N. C., Dec. 17.—(AP)—Kill Devil Hill, virtually isolated from the rest of the world, proceeded nevertheless today with celebration of the 40th anniversary of the Wright brothers' first airplane flight, even though, on a sharply reduced scale.

The worst snowstorm in this section in 26 years blanketed the highway from Elizabeth City to the outer banks and the island with a six-foot snow drift, making bus and automobile transportation all but impossible.

Representatives of Governor J. M. Broughton's Kitty Hawk Day committee were already here, having arrived before the storm reached its height, but other officials were kept away when planes were grounded.

AP Correspondent Is Held In Poland

Baltimore, Dec. 17—(AP)—Mrs. Tracey Diggs of Linthicum Heights, Md., said today she had received a letter from her husband in a German prison camp disclosing that Larry Allen, Associated Press war correspondent, was confined in Poland.

Lieut. Frank Diggs wrote that Allen was a fellow prisoner in Oflag 64, in Poland near the village of Schubin. Allen was captured during an unsuccessful British naval landing in Libya, and held prisoner in Italy before the Allied invasion of that country. Diggs was taken prisoner after being wounded in the leg during the invasion of Sicily.

News from New Britain Indicates Little, If Any, Opposition After Brief Skirmishes

PATROLS BRANCH OUT

By MURLIN SPENCER

General MacArthur's Headquarters, New Guinea, Dec. 17.—(AP)—American troops that invaded the Arawe peninsula of New Britain island Wednesday are consolidating their positions, while the American air force has successfully repelled several Japanese air attacks.

The announcement from General Douglas MacArthur's headquarters was the first since the bulletins yesterday telling of the landing of army troops on the southwest coast of Japan's main island base in the southwest Pacific.

There were no further retails of the action at Arawe, but the announcement that Texas army units were consolidating their positions indicated there was little if any additional opposition after the brief skirmishes accompanying the amphibious landings.

Patrols are probably branching out into the rain-soaked jungle in reconnaissance missions seeking to contact the Japanese.

At the same time, MacArthur's headquarters announced that Australians on the western side of Vitiaz Strait were making "good progress" up the Huon peninsula of New Guinea and capture of Lakona was "imminent."

The American Sixth Army established its hold on the Arawe peninsula with but few casualties, considering the scope of the operation.

It was the first concerted action for the Sixth Army, commanded by Lt. Gen. Walter Krueger, and it won a strategically important position for the Allies, giving them command of the southern entrance to Vitiaz and Dampier Straits which separate New Britain from the northeast coast of New Guinea, now firmly held by the Australians.

A United States destroyer force under Rear Adm. Daniel Barbey pounded Arawe and the tiny islands at the entrance to the harbor before the first army assault troops shoved off in force for the shore. Heavy and medium bombers added their explosives to the ton of steel thrown at the enemy.

General MacArthur, directing the operation from a small island off the north coast of New Guinea, said not a plane of the American and Australian squadrons that supported the action was lost, nor was any of our naval or transport ships lost.

Sabotage In Eastern Area Officers Say

Philadelphia, Dec. 17—(AP)—The eastern military area, including Philadelphia, has been the "scene of acts of sobotage and is the most dangerous area we have at the present time," an army officer testified in U. S. district court.

The statement was made by Col. Paul J. McDonnell, assistant chief of staff, Eastern Defense Command, in charge of intelligence, in an open court hearing yesterday.

The hearing was held to review an army request for an order excluding Karl Scherzberg, 56, German-born real estate agent from the Eastern Military Area as "dangerous to national security."

Col. McDonnell told the court, "acts of sabotage have occurred in this area, but because of the danger of informing the enemy, I cannot mention anything other than this at the present time:"

He added, however, "this area is even more dangerous than the west coast."

Scherzberg resisted the army's request for an exclusion order and insisted that he was a loyal citizen, although he admitted that he was "glad the Germans chased the British out of France" and that he sent packages to German war prisoners in Canada last Christmas.

C. A. P. CAMPAIGN

FRENCH ARE FIGHTING IN CENTRAL ITALY

Outstanding Successes Are Scored Against Germans In Mountain Engagement

BLAST RAILWAY YARDS

By WES GALLAGHER

Allied Headquarters, Algiers, Dec. 17—(AP)—French troops, entering the war on the European mainland for the first time since 1940, have scored outstanding successes against the Germans in mountain fighting in central Italy, it was announced today.

The French have been in forward positions alongside British and American soldiers for some time, but their presence was not disclosed until today's communique from Allied headquarters.

They are the same troops which fought alongside the Allies in Tunisia, but since then have been completedly re-equipped with American uniforms, guns and materials.

Soon after moving up to the battlefront the French participated in a series of local attacks, capturing several important German hilltop positions and taking a number of prisoners, who expressed surprise at finding the French in action.

Striking at enemy communication lines through the Alps for the second consecutive day, Allied heavy bombers blasted railway yards yesterday at Padua in northeastern Italy, it was announced today.

Aground, New Zealand troops with the Eighth Army on the eastern section of the battlefront carried out a successful attack, headquarters said in its daily communique. Eighth Army forces also beat off two determined German counterattacks, inflicting heavy losses on the enemy.

The Fifth Army captured more important hills and repulsed an enemy counterattack west of Venafro. Fierce hand-to-hand fighting was reported in the San Pietro area.

Improvement Is Maintained By Churchill

By JUDSON Q. QUINN

London, Dec. 17—(AP)—Prime Minister Churchill will require a long period for recuperation from his second pneumonia attack in ten months and consequently it was expected today that Britain's war cabinet might name an acting leader to serve in his absence.

Information reaching London this afternoon said that improvement in the Prime Minister's conlition was being maintained.

There seemed general agreement that a long convalescence was in prospect for the stricken leader despite the incredible energy still apparent in his seventieth year (he observed his 69th birthday during the Teheran conference) and the driving force that raised the British Empire from the dark days of 1940 to the dawn of a day of victory.

Prayers went up throughout the nation for his quick recovery. King George VI arranged for a messenger to bring him hourly news.

Factory Workers To See War Film

Philadelphia, Dec. 17—(AP)—"War Department Peport," a thought provoking picture of war in the raw as American soldiers have found it on battle fronts around the world, as well as in the air and on the sea, has started a statewide tour of war factories to show the workers what must be done to win and why.

The 45-minute film had its public premier here yesterday before several hundred executives and business men who were asked by Undersecretary of War Robert P. Patterson to make it possible for every war-worker to see it.

The film, which is distributed through the Industrial Services Division, Bureau of Public Relations, War Department, Washington, shows actual scenes of fighting on all frients, picturing the living and even the dead and dying.

Known Dead In Carolina Wreck Is 70

Search for Bodies Goes Forward During Night In Light of Torches

OVER FIFTY ARE INJURED

By RALPH L. HOWLAND

Lumberton, N. C., Dec. 17—(AP)—The toll of known dead in the southeast's worst railroad disaster rose to 70 today as wreckers worked with little success to pry apart four telescoped passenger cars that still blocked the Atlantic Coast Line's double-track mainline from New York to Florida.

The body of an unidentified civilian was recovered from the wreckage early today. Red Cross and railroad officials here reported eight more bodies were believed locked in a section of one of the cars which had not been entered.

The four steel cars, stacked one on top of the other, were so jammed together that they were little bigger than one car is normally. The wrecking trains were able to move the pyramided coaches only six feet all night.

The double pileup of the two crack flyers produced a death list just short of that in the wreck of the Congressional Limited in Philadelphia last September when 80 persons lost their lives.

The toll of dead—43 servicemen and 21 civilians—was announced by Atlantic Coast Line Railroad headquarters at Wilmington. Upwards of 50 persons were injured, many seriously.

Enough of the mass of telescoped cars and twisted rails was expected to be moved today to permit resumption of normal traffic over the trunk A. C. L. lines.

The disaster occurred on the coldest day of the winter, in 10-

TOP OFFICIALS JOIN GREETING TO EXECUTIVE

Host of Senators and Congressmen of Both Major Parties Meet President at White House

CONFERENCES PLANNED

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL

Washington, Dec. 17—(AP)—Bronzed and smiling—but in need of a haircut—President Roosevelt came back home to the White House from his long trek into the Middle East today and found a tumultuous reception awaiting him there.

Members of the cabinet and other top officials of the government were assembled with a host of senators and congressmen of both major parties in the diplomatic reception room of the executive mansion to extend a noisy greeting.

After a general round of handshaking, Mr. Roosevelt got together with the congressional leaders to discuss the possibility of his appearing on Capitol Hill to report on his conferences at Cairo and Teheran. Speaker Fayburn said later the chief executive had decided he would not appear before congress until he delivers his annual message early next year.

Mr. Roosevelt looked tanned and fit after five weeks' absence and many of those who greeted him commented on how well he looked.

But to a veteran negro attendant at the White House who doubles as presidential barber, Mr. Roosevelt remarked: "I need a hair cut, John."

The chief executive came up to the south entrance of the White House shortly before 9:30 a. m. Mrs. Roosevelt and their daughter Anna Boettiger, were riding with him.

Girl Testifies In Sensational Mercer Trial

Mercer, Dec. 17—(AP)—Janice Graham, 20-year-old blonde farm girl, was on the witness stand for an hour and 20 minutes again today and testified William A. Morell threatened to choke her unless she fled with him from the scene of a triple murder on the Everett Wilson farm last October 7.

Morell, a 20-year-old farm hand, is charged with the slayings of his employer's wife, Helen, 48; the farm owner's mother, Mrs. Catherine Wilson, 78, and Robert McKay, another farm hand.

The Graham girl, in cross-examination by attorneys for Morell, again refused to answer questions about her conduct with Morell and her employer, Wilson.

She reiterated previous testimony that Morell tied and gagged her before the slayings.

Miss Graham, a maid on the Wilson farm and in whose company Morell was arrested in Ohio a few days after the slayings, was the principal witness for the state yesterday. She is charged with being an accessory after the fact and will be tried later.

Alias Santa Claus Becomes Sentimental Over Carol Sing

"Say folks" said Alias Santa as he invaded the editorial sanctum, "didja go to the carol sing at the Beaty school last night? You didn't! Well, I am disappointed in you as everyone should have heard those young voices united in the sweet songs of Christmas that have escoed down through times for scores of years. It was great and I sat there enthralled. If there is anything I love it's Christmas carols. And when they are sung by the lush voices of the young they are simply magnificent!

"And as the singing progressed I closed my eyes and when the sweet strains of "Oh, Little Town of Bethlehem" rang out I seemingly could see little towns over the county where lighted windows showed bright; where children lay sleeping and mother's eyes had a pained expression as if they feared the coming of Christmas morn with empty stockings for their kiddies. And I thought what a wondrous thing it would be if everyone could catch the vision that I had of Old Alias Santa and his helpers taking care of those stockings and leaving them fairly bursting with gifts and Christmas cheer. What a light there would be in the mother's eyes when the tiny socks were filled!

"But even if you were not at the Carol Sing and did not catch the vision as the old time airs rang out you can still help. Just bring or send a donation to the Alias Santa Fund at the Times-Mirror office and when "Silent Night, Holy Night" rings on the air you will have a sense of peace and satisfaction in your heart that only comes to those who have performed good deeds in helping a child or an unfortunate of the gladsome Christmas holiday".

And Old Alias, who so well knows the needs of the unfortunates of the vicinity slyly wiped away a tear from his eye, blew his nose lustily and said "I wish everyone could have caught that vision and heard those carols. I simply would not need to make another appeal."

Inquiry Into Pleasant Twp. Tragedy Ends

Monoxide Gas Poisoning From Defective Pipe Is Given As Cause

LAST RITES PLANNED

Under the direction of Coroner Ed Lowrey State Police have completed their probe into the deaths of Joseph Angelotti and Mrs. Doris Steiner, which took place some time during Thursday morning. The police had the death car towed to a local garage where it is being closely inspected for any leaks of monoxide gas that undoubtedly caused death. Close inspection at the garage showed that the exhaust pipe carrying off the fumes from the engine had a hole of considerable size in it.

This was found yesterday in a cursory examination made while the bodies were still in the car. the highway patrolman crawled under the car and investigated at the scene and he found the hole in the exhaust. Tape had been used to cover it but this had been burned badly and was of little effect in keeping the fumes from escaping. Undoubtedly while the car was in motion the fumes were fanned away but when parked with the engine running the fumes in all their subtle deadliness would rise into the car.

Angelotti and Mrs. Steiner were undoubtedly overcome without any realization of their tragic end.

Investigation by the State Police elicited the information that both the man and the woman had been in a West End restaurant until after one o'clock when they left, undoubtedly for the fatal ride to the spot where their bodies were discovered yesterday by Victor Fladry, of the Oakland cemetery.

Examination of the bodies by the coroner's physician bore out the

Threat of Shortage Of Trees Eases Up

Harrisburg, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Threats of a Christmas tree shortage in Pennsylvania are disappearing through increased use of the home-grown product instead of—as in other years—bringing 1,500,000 of the evergreens in from other states, the Department of Forests and Waters declared today.

"Anticipating a ready market and a possible shortage," Secretary James A. Keil explained, "private woodland owners have permitted vendors to cut trees on their lands for a small sum to overcome transportation difficulties."

Keil explained that many persons, anticipating a shortage, went into the vending business and cut trees on local woodlands.

The State Defense Council called attention to a War Production Board appeal to abandon in the interest of conservation all electric lighting of outdoor, community and inside commercial Christmas trees.

SIXTH MAJOR ASSAULT ON REICH CAPITAL

Stockholm Dispatches Say Berlin Is Burning Again Today After Two Weeks Respite

FLAMES REDDEN SKIES

By W. W. HERCHER

London, Dec. 17—(AP)—Stricken Berlin heaved up fields of flame and smoke last night as hundreds of giant, black RAF bombers loosed thunderous explosives on the Nazi nerve center for the 41st time this year.

Stockholm dispatches said the capital city was burning again today after a two weeks respite, the flames from her gutted buildings "reddening the sky." Telephone communication was irregular, and the capital's transport was reported paralyzed from streets choked with debris.

The sixth raid on the capital in a month was launched from Britain just after American Liberator and Flying Fortresses returned in twilight from their daylight raids on northwest Germany. The Eighth Air Force did not specify the American's target, but the German communique said the fleets were over Helgoland Bay and "dropped a great number of high explosives and incendiary bombs on residential quarters in a number of localities in northwestern Germany" and Bremen. It acknowledged particularly heavy damage to Bremen itself, the big U-boat base which the Americans battered also on Nov. 26 and 29.

The degree of the Berlin assault—more than 1,500 long tons of bombs—and the determination with which it was pressed home despite the loss of 30 bombers, left no doubt that the RAF intends to finish the job of leveling what remains of the capital city's acres of factories, government buildings, financial institutions and warehouses.

With last night's attack, which came before bomb-exhausted Berliners had a chance to fall asleep, more than 15,000 tons of high explosives and incendiaries have been showered upon the blackened and shattered city.

Annual Christmas Message From Vatican Dec. 24

At the Italian-Swiss Frontier, Dec. 17—(AP)—Pope Pius XII will broadcast his traditional Christmas message to the world from the Vatican radio Dec. 24 at 12:15 p. m. Rome time (7:15 a. m. Eastern War Time) over wave lengths 3106 and 1987.

Christmas Eve he will celebrate midnight mass which also will be broadcast, starting at 11 p. m. Rome time (6:00 p. m. Eastern War Time).

Although the Pope's annual Christmas address is awaited with interest, it is not generally believed that he will seek directly to influence the warring nations.

However, the intense activity of the head of the Catholic church in the past few days has fostered another series of rumors of peace negotiations. Informed Catholics generally discount these reports, declaring that all the Pontiff's efforts to mediate have failed and that the Vatican's efforts now are limited to charitable work.

Ring Champs Plan To Visit Boys Abroad

Washington, Dec. 17—(AP)—Sgt. Joe Louis Barrow, world's heavyweight boxing champion, will end his exhibition tour of army posts in this country January 20 and then go overseas to visit camps in various theaters of operations.

This was announced today by the War Department. Louis and his group are scheduled for 21 appearances between now and January 20 at camps in Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, Florida, South Carolina and North Carolina.

Traveling with Louis are Sgt. James Edgar, Corp. Walker Smith (Sugar Ray Robinson), Pvt. George Wilson (Jackie Wilson), Corp. Bob Smith and Corp. Robert J. Payne, trainer.

To date the group, traveling under direction of the Army Special Services Division, has visited more than 70 army installations in every section of the United States except the southeast.

The War Department said that by the end of the tour more than 630,000 soldiers will have witnessed the exhibitions with an average attendance of 7,000 at each appearance.

LORD HALIFAX ILL

Philadelphia, Dec. 17—(AP)—Lord Halifax, British ambassador to the United States, scheduled to speak to the council of bishops of the Methodist church here today has cancelled his appearance because of illness, public relations officer of the council announced yesterday at Princeton, N. J.

One Toy for Each Child In Germany

Stockholm, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Dr. Paul Joseph Goebbels and his propaganda machine have begun preparing the war-weary German people for their gloomiest Christmas since 1939 by promising every child one toy—and a homemade one at that.

Goebbels, as spokesman for the Nazi Party, has acclaimed Christmas as a "test period" for the German people.

There will be lighted Christmas trees at those observances, but party spokesmen emphasized that there will be no presents given or received, except one toy to each child.

Millions of Hitler youth have been mobilized to make the playthings, mostly carved from wood—because there are no commercially manufactured toys on the German market this year.

RACKETEERS IN THE MEDICAL PROFESSION

Washington, Dec. 17—(AP)—It costs too much for a congressman to became a father maintains Representative Gross (R-Pa).

Gross, a York county, Pa., farmer told the house he had been informed that some Washington physicians charge legislators as much as $1,000 to bring their offspring into the world.

If the medical profession wants to avoid socialized medicine, he said, it "had better clean house of the racketeers within the profession.

Grangers Opposed To Food Subsidies

Williamsport, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Federal food subsidies were opposed by the Pennsylvania State Grange in a resolution which called them unsound and detrimental to farmers.

The Grange, at the concluding sessions of its 71st annual convention last night, also urged in resolutions that milk problems be handled through the State Department of Agriculture rather than through a Milk Control Commission and that farmers join with own organizations instead of with what the Grange called John L. Lewis' Dairymen's Union.

Opposition also was voiced to daylight saving time, to all forms of socialized medicine and to the liquor business.

Lacy School to Sponsor Boy Scout Troop

Approximately 100 members of Lacy PTA, meeting at the school building last evening, voted to sponsor a Boy Scout troop from that district and paid tribute to former Lacy students now serving in the armed forces.

Leo Gleese, Scout official, was heard in a short talk on Scouting after which the unit voted to sponsor the new troop. All boys between the ages of 9 and 15 years, living in that district, will be eligible to membership whether or not they attend Lacy school.

Following the business and routine reports, a program was given in honor of those in the service. Melda Olsen was accompanied by Ruth Ackert for a vocal solo, "Keep the Home Fires Burning". Father Salvatore Mitchell spoke on the relation of the school to the home in keeping the home fires burning for a permanent victory and Rev. S. R. Schieb presented the relationship of the home to the school in attaining the same goal.

Mrs. Nick Merenick and Miss Irene Peck, accompanied by Mrs. Harry Granquist, sang the National Hymn of Canada and "Battle Hymn of the Republic". Miss Olsen again appeared and sang "America the Beautiful".

Miss Effie Paterson, school principal, then unrolled the scroll bearing the names of 104 boys and one girl in the armed services and paid them a fine tribute. The national anthem was sung by the group to close the program.

Earlier in the evening, the attendance prize was awarded Miss Paterson's room, Christmas carols were directed by Frances Peterson and Mrs. Harold Nelson read the Christmas Story. At the close of the program, refreshments were served by Miss Olson's room.

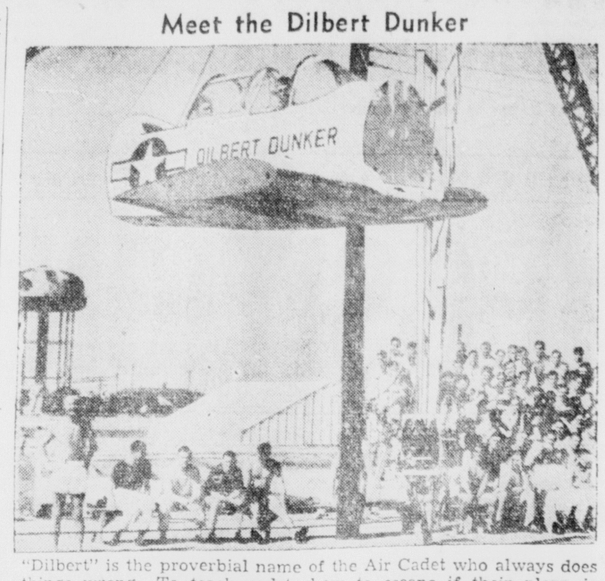
Meet the Dilbert Dunker



"Dilbert" is the proverbial name of the Air Cadet who always does things wrong. To teach cadets how to escape if their plane is downed in water, officers at the Corpus Christi, Tex., Naval Air Training Center rigged up the "Dilbert Dunker" pictured above. A sawed-off two-seater plane, it is hoisted up, dropped in the swimming pool and quickly sinks. Fully-clothed trainees have 25 seconds in which to scramble out, salvage equipment, inflate life jackets and rubber raft. (Navy photo from NEA.)

New Record Is Made In Firing School

Shooting last night in the finals of the 17th class of instruction sponsored by the Warren Small Arms Firing School, John Sudul had a record score of 296, highest ever fired on the course.

Others qualifying last night as basic riflemen first class were Richard Metzger with 286, Harry Kershaw 280, James Simmons, 270, Paul Reynolds, 261, Fred Shelton 260, Gail Barker 258 and David Spies 253.

In second class were Harry C. Wilson with 240 and Earl Sturgis 228. Completing the roster, Sven Forslund fired 214 for basic rifleman third class.

Throughout this class has fired consistently fine scores and has been a credit to both students and instructors.

A new class, the 18th, will be started on January 4. Instruction will again be at the army building on Hickory street and anyone interested may contact officers of the club or class instructors.

STORES OPEN TONIGHT

This evening for the first time the stores of the city will be open evenings to care for the Christmas trade. They will also be open Saturday evening and every evening next week until Friday when they will close at 6 o'clock. Christmas buying has been in progress for weeks and has been exceptionally steady and heavy.

SERVICES ARE BUSY

Both the postoffice and the express offices are just about the busiest places in town. Thousands of packages are being handled and the rush now is at its peak. The express company is handling a large volume of air express in the delivery of Christmas parcels which they will take for delivery until December 20th. The postoffice, too, is open evenings.

BUSES ARE LATE

During the past few days since real winter set in with its snow and ice the Greyhound buses have been running late, especially from the east where they cross the mountains. The West Ridge line has been maintaining schedules in good shape probably evidencing the fact that roads in this section are just a little better taken care of than in eastern sections. The Pennsylvania railroad has also been experiencing some difficulty in getting its mail and express trains through on schedule due to heavy business. The train from the east yesterday morning was five hours late and the train last night was over an hour late. The morning passenger train from the east was about on time yesterday and also today.

Anderson Saw Much Action In Paciic Area

Dean G. Anderson, seaman first class in the U. S. Navy, is another of Warren county's heroes to arrive home safely after many months of battling the Japs. Seaman Anderson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Anderson, of North Warren, and is on 22-day leave.

His ship was hit twice by Jap bombers in the South Pacific. He has been serving as gunner on one of the largest U. S. destroyers, his ship having been credited with shooting down many Jap planes and inflicting much damage to the enemy before finally being damaged.

He witnessed the loss of some of his buddies and saw many wounded. Seaman Anderson describes vividly the horror of emerging from his gun to see the ship afire, flooded by oil and apparently sinking. The crew members were highly praised by the captain for their bravery and untiring efforts that resulted in bringing the ship back to the States. He says: "The most wonderful feeling I have ever had was seeing the lights of Frisco coming in".

The young man also relates the happy experience of meeting a friend out in the Pacific. He and William C. Fales, of Pittsfield, enlisted at Buffalo on the same day and did not see each other again until their two ships tied together in the Pacific about a year later. They were permitted to visit on each other's boat and later were granted a liberty together in Hawaii.

Seaman Anderson is a graduate of Warren High School and enlisted at Buffalo September 25, 1942. He received his basic training in Rhode Island. He wears five gold stars for major battles and invasion.

He has many friends in the section who will wish him another safe return from duty when his leave is up.

Fire Chief Doesn't Want Santa Burned

Fire Chief Douglas Kropf is back on the job after a weeks absence from the city and one of the first things he has done is to issue a warning, "Don't celebrate Christmas by setting the house on fire".

The chief issues a warning of increased fire hazards this year because of wartime shortages of electrical wriing and replacement of parts. Old, frayed and defective wiring may be pressed into service with disastrous results.

Here are some tips from the Chief's handbook on how to avoid common Yuletide fire hazards:

1—Christmas tree. Keep the tree fresh by standing it in a pan of water. You can flameproof it, too, by sawing off the base at least one inch above the original cut and standing it in the following solution: 1 pound ammonium sulphate to 1½ pints of water. Keep tree in a cool place until it has absorbed most of the solution. Degree of fire resistance depends on the amount of the solution obserbed.

2—Wiring. Inspect carefully and repair or discard if defective.

3—Rubbish. Dispose of wrappings and empty boxes as soon as possible.

4—Candles. Don't use them on the Christmas tree.

5—Have all fire extinguishers in the home charged and ready for use. And above all if a fire does start summon the fire department as soon as possible. Call on the telephone and tell the firemen just how much of a fire you have. The emergency truck can be used at most small fires and the calling out of the heavy expensive apparatus is not necessary in nine out of ten cases.

Seaweeds are used in camouflage devised by the U. S. armed forces.

DIFFICULT TIME AHEAD

(By DeWitt MacKenzie, Associated Press War Analyst)

So at long last, after more than a year of bloody fighting among the stinking, disease infested jungles on the islands of the southwest Pacific, our gallant American troops have made a successful landing on New Britain, key position in that strategic portion of the Japanese perimeter of defense.

We have without undue losses established a bridgehead at Arawe, on the southeastern coast of his big, crescent-shaped island. That means we finally have forced one of the gateways of this important blockhouse. It's a grand piece of work and one that should lead to great things, but we should remember that we have only just got inside the gateway and that difficult operations lie ahead before the whole island is in our hands.

One of the most significant aspects of this new exhibition of Allied striking-power is that it emphasizes that we definitely have captured the initiative in Pacific warfare. This capture of Arawe, and other recent successes, presages the big scale offensive which is boiling up against the enemy. Our ability to embark on such an undertaking is, of course, due to our great naval and air superiority in the Pacific.

What we are aiming at on New Britain is the huge base at the port of Rabaul, on the northern horn of the crescent. This was second in importance to Japan's prize base of Truk, some 200 miles to the north, until the American air force got at Rabaul and so knocked it about that the Japs had to abandon it as a naval operating base.

The way it looks now, the capture of Arawe is for the purpose of establishing a new air base from which we can reach Rabaul and other Jap air fields on the island more readily and neutralize them. There is no indication that we intend to try to make an overland attack on Rabaul from Arawe.

THE CONFIDENT MANNER WINS

Always interested in figuring out why people behave as they do, Donald A. Laird, Sc. D., relates in Your Life an amusing incident which has to do with the effect a confident manner can have upon others. He tells it this way:

A skeptical acquaintance in the South doubted that one could get others to do almost anything if one had a confident manner. So he tested it. Lawrence Tibbett was singing that night in their largest theatre, and Lee took the occasion to test the powers of an assumed confident manner.

He put on his tuxedo, went to the theatre, and lounged around the stage door for a few minutes, smoking a cigarette. He flicked the butt into the gutter, and turned to the grizzled guard at the stage door.

"Looks like a good crowd tonight," Lee said as he started to walk through the stage entrance.

"We always get a good turnout for a star like your man, sir," the doorkeeper said, touching his hat.

A confident manner had worked well so far. But once inside the problem was different. Over there stood the star himself. Lee did not hesitate—he saw a small package which he picked up, and walked to Mr. Tibbett. He extended his hand.

"Is everything going all right?" Lee asked as he shook hands. They chatted for a few minutes. Then Lee handed him the package.

"Hold this for me a while," he said, and left. So far as he knows, the opera star may still be holding the package.

WAR-TIME CHRISTMAS

"Many families are puzzled as to whether to have a jolly Christmas at home when one of the family is overseas, especially if he is on one of the fighting lines," says an exchange on a question that is being freely discussed at the present time. "They don't like to spend money which would be held until the war is over, and they do not like to celebrate when he is in danger or discomfort." Then the following suggestion is offered:

Most of the Christmas money, without any doubt, should be put into bonds and stamps. And for grown-up families, rather quiet Christmases will no doubt be the order of the day. But there ought to be joy, and jolity, and that touch with the infinite which the Christmas magic never fails to bring.

As for families with children, Major Harlan Miller, now in England, has a word for it: "What will please overseas fathers most this year is that the family go ahead with a humdinger of a Christmas, just as if he were there to trip over the toys in person."

Now, more than ever, the spread of cheer is one of the best comforters.

Announcement is made that three miles from Youngsville toward Pittsfield will be built and that the road between Warren and Sheffield will also be constructed. What It Means

By HERMAN R. ALLEN

WASHINGTON—In central China, to the west and south of Lake Tungting, sprawls the "Rice Bowl," a system of fertile valleys and plains half as big as Texas.

Its principal cities are Changsha, to the south of the lake, and Changteh, 120 miles west of Changsha. The Japanese have big bases at Yo Chow, northeast of the lake, and at Ichang, some distance up the Yangtze river.

Four times the Japs have pushed into the Rice Bowl and four times they have been pushed back. Just what their object is has been a puzzler.

In October, 1939, the Japs drove down on Changsha from Yo Chow but were driven back without reaching the city.

In September, 1941, they succeeded in taking Changsha but were forced out after three days.

Disastrous Campaign

In January, 1942, in one of their most disastrous Chinese campaigns, 120,000 Japs succeeded in reaching Changsha, with 30,000 Chinese melting before them. The "melted" Chinese, however, spread out in the hills on the Jap flanks and suddenly became quite solid again. They cut the Jap supply lines and when the Japs were thus forced to retreat they swarmed down and attacked them from both sides. The Chinese claim to have killed or wounded 45,000 Japs.

This year the Japs finally got smart. They had been defeated three times at Changsha by troops sent from the Changteh area. So they decided to get Changteh first. Then move east and get Changsha. They sent their troops west from Yo Chow along the north shore of Lake Tungting and then south.

The campaign started last May, was stalled during the summer, regained fury in November. The fighting was so heavy that the Chinese claimed to have killed 10,000 Japs between Nov. 20 and 29, and the Japs claim to have killed 18,497 Chinese between Nov. 2 and Dec. 5. The battle was notable for the important part played by American flyers and for the fact that the Chinese accused the Japs of using poison gas.

See-Saw Affair

The Nipponese broke into the outskirts of Changteh Nov. 29 but were driven out Dec. 1. Since then the fighting has been a see-saw affair, with the Japs re-entering the city and the Chinese then driving them out.

You can get three opinions in Washington from persons who are acquainted with China as to what the Jap strategy is:

1. That the Japs are interested only in carrying off as much rice as they can and destroying the rest, do not wish to hold the area because to do so would extend their lines too far.

2. That these campaigns represent serious effort to capture and hold communication lines between Hunnan province (the rice bowl lies in Hunnan and Hopeh provinces) and Czechwan province, where Chungking, the provisional capital, is located.

3. A compromise opinion which admits that the Japs want to destroy the rice crops but that they would also like to hold the territory if they could do it with the forces sent on the expedition.

In other words, this opinion contends, if the Japs really wanted to move in on the area, and hold it, they could do so by sending a lot more men. Apparently they don't think it's worth a major expedition but would be very happy if they got a good break and could hold it with the relatively minor forces which they have been employing.

Actually, the first opinion seems to have the most support here. One military man, discussing the present campaign, told me "It looks as though this will follow the same pattern as previous years. That is, the Japs will get in, get what rice they can, and get out."

Hollywood Gossip

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD — Edward Arnold, the grand vizier of Bagdad, was entertaining Ronald Colman, the beggar-magician, for a scene in "Kismet" and the dialogue was bouncing along.

But Jimmy Flaster, the sound man, removed the lucite "beeps" from his ears and shook his head. "Arnold's going to blow," he whispered to us.

And Arnold "blew"—instantly. He stumbled on the word "Hassir," the mythical land of which Colman is supposed to be a prince.

We hailed Jimmy Flaster as a prophet, asked him whence came his mysterious power.

"We always know," he chuckled. "I could tell because Arnold started speeding up. We can tell, usually, about two lines ahead because the actor speeds up, apparently involuntarily, as he approaches a line he's not sure of."

* * *

SO WE picked up some more items of contemporary science, while the actors prepared to go through the scene again. A sound technician, said Jimmy Flaster, will know if a player needs a drink of water, if he has new bridge work, even if his tummy grumbles.

"Sometimes," he said, "a player's mouth will become dry but he won't ask for a drink of water because he doesn't want to hold up production, or because he doesn't know it's affecting his tones. We often have to suggest they take a drink."

And there are times when the sound man must be also a diplomat. One day Flaster suggested to a distinguished character actor that his "teeth seemed chattery."

"Oh," said the actor, unflustered by Flaster, "it must be my new dentures. I'll use my old ones." He made a quick change, and the sound track no longer picked up unexpected clicks.

* * *

THE sound man's enemy is the whisper. No matter whether it conveys the latest gossip or the most innocuous trivia, the whisper is hard on the technician's disposition and the movie's budget—for a whisper, says Jimmy, actually carries much farther and picks up more readily than ordinary conversation.

Of all the women with whom he has worked, Jimmy rates Hedy Lamarr easiest to record. She has excellent diction and enunciation and, because English is not her native tongue, she keeps trying for perfection. Colman ("precise speech, almost chiseled") and Arnold ("his voice is so rich—so schmaltzy") are among the top male voices in his catalogue.

It cost one company, Flaster recalls, several hundred dollars before one combination of words, innocent in type, came through properly. The expression was "new disarmament." It insisted on coming through as "nudist armament."

SUGAR GROVE

Sugar Grove, Dec. 16.—Howard Rathburn has been appointed acting postmaster of the Sugar Grove Postoffice. He has been appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the death of William C. Jamieson.

The annual Christmas Party of the Hill and Dale Garden Club was held Wednesday in the parlors of the Presbyterian Church, at Sugar Grove. A buffet dinner was served from a table with a center piece of Christmas greens and blue candles, with Mrs. R. S. Cumming presiding at the coffee table. After dinner, Mrs. Paul Lindell presided at a business meeting with the calendar for the year and the standing committees being read by the secretary, Mrs. Donald Haggerty was appointed to act as a representative of the club in making plans for a service club representing this community. Mrs. Clara Burgett announced the program. Several Christmas hymns were sung with Mrs. Delmar Mickleson acting as leader and Mrs. Kenneth Frank as pianist. Mrs. Harry Mahan read the Christmas Story from Luke and offered prayer. Readings were given by Mrs. Paul Lindell, Mrs. Fuller and Mrs. Burgett. Gifts from the tree were distributed by Mrs. Mitchell Mahan and Mrs. Frank Richmond. The dinner committee were Mrs. Ralph Abbott, Mrs. Harry Ludwick, Mrs. Stuart Andersen and Mrs. Ira Johnson.

Mrs. Stuart Andersen and Mrs. Scott Stuart entertained the Try Company of the Presbyterian Church, at a Christmas Party at the former's home Tuesday evening with nineteen present in spite of the very low temperature. Mrs. Agnes Abbott presided at the business meeting and Mrs. Carl Perrin conducted Christmas devotions, with Christmas Carols sung by the group with Mrs. Kenneth Frank accompanist. The gifts from a lovely white Christmas tree on the table were distributed by Mrs. C. L. Veness. Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

The members of the Embroidery Club were entertained at a Christmas Party in the form of a breakfast, Saturday morning at nine o'clock, at the home of Mrs. F. A. Schoonover, with Mrs. Jesse Thompson assisting hostess. Christmas decorations and candle light made the home and breakfast table beautiful. Gifts were exchanged and the members and several guests enjoyed the unusual affair.

Everybody Reads the Times Mirror

An Aviation Cadet's Big Moment

Flying has many thrills but no other equals the moment when an instructor taps an Aviation Cadet on the shoulder and says, "Take her up alone!" Here a fledgling at Randolph Field, Texas, is preparing to make his first solo flight in a 200-horsepower primary training plane. Soon he will be piloting planes of some 2,000-horsepower in the finest Air Force in the world.

"When you see one of our Warren boys wearing silver wings and the letters 'AC' on his lapel, you know he's headed for Aviation Cadet training with the U. S. Army Air Forces," Lt. Burkhard CAP said today.

"All over the country these winged emblems of the Air Corps Enlisted Reserve are blossoming forth on the lapels of proud young men if seventeen. It's great this patriotic movement, and one which spells disaster for the Axis. All of us are mighty proud of our young men who have chosen the Air Corps," he continued.

Lt. Burkhard CAP explained the set-up further. "As soon as he reaches the age of seventeen, a young man may apply for membership in the Air Corps Enlisted Reserve of the Army Air Forces. He takes his preliminary tests at once, and if he passes, may wear its emblem: silver wings with a blue medallion, on which are inscribed the letters 'AC'. The tests are stiff, naturally, because flying requires superior physical and mental equipment. Nevertheless, any alert-minded young man in good health should be able to make the grade.

"Some time after his eighteenth birthday, the young reservist is called up for Aviation Cadet training. It may be as much as six months after that birthday, if the time is needed for the completion of his current school term. The Army is anvious to have him stay in school, or at his regular civilian employment, until the time comes to start his active training.

"The consent of his parents is required, of course. But the vast majority of parents are proud and pleased when their son comes to them and says, 'Mom—Dad—I want to fly with the Army Air Forces!"

KINZUA

Kinzua, Dec. 13—The snow storms of the past few days have kept the cinder crews busy around here as the roads are very icy.

Frank Colosino was one of the few lucky hunters in this area. He got a 10 point 170 pound buck Saturday morning.

The WSCS met with Mrs. Louis Featt Thursday night. After a business meeting a tureen lunch was served and Christmas gifts exchanged.

Dr. Flatt had the misfortune to fall and injure his knee Saturday but Sunday as up and going again. Not bad for a man 80 years old.

Edward Peace was home on a weekend pass from New Cumberland this weekend. He is now an army cadet.

Mrs. H. L. Thompson had the misfortune to fall and sprain her ankle recently.

Thomas Anderson and son Leroy from New Castle called on the C. A. Young's Sunday.

Mrs. C. A. Young is confined to her home with a bad cold and lagrippe.

The temperature around Kinzua for the last couple of mornings has been around zero.

Kinzua is having another siege of hunters. This time for the 3-day antlerless deer season. As I write this, gun fire can be plainly heard from the hillsides around the village.

A Christmas card was received from Pvt. Henry Miller who is stationed with the 6th Chem. Div. in Sicily.

To all members of Co. I, 116th Reg. N. G. P. drill at State Armory, Parren, Pa., Tuesday nights as usual. All men please be present.

Does Imperialism Help Civilization?

As debated by

Henry Noble Hall — Veteran British and American Newspaperman, Authority on International Affairs.

Louis Fischer — Author of forthcoming book "Empire," Internationally known writer and lecturer.

MR. HALL OPENS: Imperialism is the greatest civilizing force the world has ever known. At least 4/5ths of the human race can neither read nor write and are utterly incapable of governing themselves. They range from the savage Bhils and Santals, Kadirs and Irulas of India, the aboriginal bushmen of Australia, the cannibals of the South Pacific, the Pigmies of Central Africa, the low Mongolian forms of the Great Desert up to the educated Hindus, the colored people of the West Indies, the Arabs of North Africa and the Levant, the French Indo-Chinese and other native races that have acquired a thin veneer of democracy at Edinburgh, Paris and other universities. How are they to be gradually fitted for self-government and to take their place along side the highly civilized peoples of the United States, England, France, Poland and other Western nations which, for a thousand years and more, have slowly, generation by generation, fitted themselves for Democracy, for Government of the People, by the People and for the People? Only by Imperialism—which as far as the United States and Great Britain are concerned—is synonymous with Altruism, can this world be made better for the vast majority of mankind.

MR. FISCHER CHALLENGES: Imperialism is Altruism! The purpose of empires it to exploit colonies. If Imperialism did not, possession would have no sense. Official data shows industrial establishments in India employed a total of 1,940,477—in a country of 400 million inhabitants! India is held back to feed British home industries with raw materials, and British policy is to discourage establishment of colonial industries which might compete with home industries. Is it "Altruism" that Indian life expectancy is 27 years, in England 60; that 45% of the children born die before the age of 5; that only 3500 students study medicine in a country scourged by disease, malnutrition, and pestilence?

MR. HALL REPLIES: Altruism sure! Possession can be justified only if it is to the advantage of the governed. The U. S. spent 2 billion dollars and 45 years to bring democracy to the Filipinos. India is a headache, but would be far worse off were it not for British rule. Surely it is our duty to help our backward and benighted brethren, the "lesser breeds without the law." That duty will not have been fully discharged so long as there remains, anywhere on God's Earth, a single savage, the untutored tenant of neglected space. Alone Imperialism can bring truth, justice, honor and the Four Freedoms to mankind.

MR. FISCHER OPENS: Imperialism retards progress and thereby gravely injures civilization. Empires are war-makers and slump-makers. It is bad for the world that 3/4ths of the human race should live like animals; that 2 billion humans eat, wear and enjoy little shelter or cultural necessities. This humanity constitutes an economic desert whose production and consumption is shamefully low. Empires — children of chance and conquest, built on the might of one nation, the weakness of their colonies—are not built on right. What right has England to rule India?—Japan to rule Manchuria or Burma?—Italy to rule Abyssinia? None! Empires are obsolete millstones around the necks of empires and colonies. The British argue that religious and caste differences bar the way to complete freedom for India. Yet the history of British imperialism and British laws, deeds and statutes points toward a deliberate policy to divide India. An imperial government can divide a colony indefinitely. Division then becomes an excuse for dependence. The end of imperialism will accelerate progress. It will not be easy. In 1931 Churchill said, ". . . the loss of India would be final and fatal to us . . . would reduce us to a minor power . . .". That is why India cannot be free to progress!

MR. HALL CHALLENGES: Of course it is bad for the world that 2 billion humans should live like animals; eat, wear and enjoy little shelter or "cultural necessities." That is how my ancestors lived 2,000 years ago. They painted their bodies blue and roamed naked in the woods of Britain. It was the Romans—those great Imperialists—who brought us civilization, opened our ports, planned our towns, built the very roads we use today. Judge Imperialism by results. One hundred years ago there were not 2,000 white men in New Zealand, which has been a self-governing and sovereign dominion of the British Commonwealth since 1931.

MR. FISCHER REPLIES: Mr. Hall's ancestors removed paint from their bodies, put shoes on their feet, clothes on their backs, roofs over their heads, automobiles on their roads through exploitation of empire slaves. Prime Minister Jan Christian Smuts just said, ". . . Britain is economically poor as against the vast resources of the Soviet Union and the U. S. . . . Should we not cease as Great Britain to be an island? . . . Should we not work with the small democracies in Western Europe? . . . Surely their place is with this member of the trinity . . . their future is with Great Britain and the next world-wide British system." Is this Imperialism, Mr. Hall, or "Altruism"?

ENTERTAINS FOR CLASS MEMBERS

Mrs. Gerda DeForest, 105 Conewango avenue, recently entertained at her home for the regular meeting of her class and a delightful Christmas party in which she was assisted by Mrs. Pearl McLean and Miss Harriet Wentz.

Mrs. John Swick led a beautiful devotional service in which all took part and Mrs. Floyd Bathurst accompanied for carol singing. At the close, all sang "Silent Night" and, with each member carrying a lighted candle, marched to a miniature church where White Gifts were deposited. A committee composed of Miss Olive Phillips, Mrs. Bathurst and Mrs. Gail Jones was appointed by the president, Mrs. F. P. MucCullough, to apportion the White Gift. It was decided by the class to give the quilt it has made to the Warren Visiting Nursing Association. After the meeting, gifts for "sunshine sisters" were distributed and a great deal of merriment resulted from an exchange of "white elephants" done up in brown bags.

Guests were then invited to the dining room, where a beautifully appointed table, with red roses as a centerpiece, awaited them. Decorations in keeping with the season were artistically carried out.

FAREWELL GIVEN FOR CHRISTMAS EVE BRIDE

Mrs. Harold E. Farrell, 313 Frank street, was hostess to a group of friends for a farewell party honoring Miss Jeanette Scott, who leaves tomorrow for Fort Ord, Calif., to become the Christmas Eve bride of Pfc. Franklin Farrell.

The table was decorated with miniature boots announcing the wedding date and a cake decorated with a bride and bridegroom. Miss Scott was presented a large boot with a purse of money from the following:

Mrs. Marge Schatzle, Mrs. John Casses, Mrs. George Baker, Mrs. E. Isabel Myers, Mrs. Harry Jones, Mrs. Ray Shepard, Miss Ann Sheppard, Miss Ethelyn Gilson, Mrs. Carolyn Sitler, Mrs. Kathryn Johnson, Mrs. Margaret Scott, Mrs. Glenn Sitler, Mrs. Loraine Brooks and the hostess.

First arrivals at the scene told of the injured crying "shoot me!", "kill me!" and begging for help and water.

The trains were crowded with holiday travelers. Scattered about the wreck scene were packages in Christmas wrappings, and broken Christmas toys.

After the first derailment, some of the passengers built bonfires of newspapers to stop two southbound freight trains. They frantically endeavored by the same means to warn the northbound engineer, without succeeding.

During the cold spell when radiators on automobiles were given a severe beating the garages and their employes were kept busy testing radiator contents and placing anti-freeze in the cars. Covering the Sports Front

—WITH—
BOB JOHNSON

The snowfall of the past two days has covered the myriads of bloody trails in the Pennsylvania woodlands and so ends another deer season with little evidence, except countless fox tracks, left to tell of the hundreds of pounds of unrationed meat dragged out of the forests this year.

Lost hunters, coroners reports, big bucks, little bucks, unbelievable stories and the rest are over for another year and the nimrods can return home to dream of the next.

Whether it was a successful season remains to be told—and seen—Deer seem still plentiful in the woods and there's no doubt but what the doe season will do wonders for the browsing of small game.

The Warren Field and Stream Club, ever trying to improve the hunting and fishing in the county, are staging a real honest-to-goodness for hunt Sunday between Sugar Grove and Lander.

Minus the red coats, derbys and thoroughbred horses they will take to the woods for a drive and shoot that should deplete the fox in that section back to where his numbers don't cause so much trouble—

If you're kicking about the past small game season, do something about it—come along—See you at Don Finley's store between 9 and 9:30—Bring the shotgun.

Craig Wood In Top Spot For Second Round

By BERT COLLIER

Miami, Fla., Dec. 17.—AP—The uncanny putting of Craig Wood, duration national open champion, was the talk of the galleries with the blond blaster from Mamaroneck, N. Y., starting the second round of the Miami open today in first spot by a stroke.

Wood carded a 34-34—68 for the best first-day showing over the Miami spring layout despite a biting wind and drizzling rain that sent many scores kiting.

Only Wood and Steve Warga, Jr., of Miami, who had a 32-37—69, bettered par and all but five of the field of 124 were over the mark. The small greens put a premium on putting and Wood was master there.

General Chairman H. H. Arnold stuck to his prediction that 278 for the 72 holes would capture the $1,000 in war bonds that goes to the winner. But he shortened his list of potential victors to three.

Colonels Offer Strong Attack; Dragons Set For Fifth Encounter

The Warren High and Strong Vincent High cage teams hit the Beaty Gym wood tonight in the third preview for the locals as to what competition they'll offer in their district league this year.

Maving up the game to 7:30 p. m., the two teams will clash at one of the earliest hours posted in years due to transportation difficulties for the opposing team and there will be a fast prelim at 6:45.

The Colonels haven't escaped unscathed this year in their circles, dropping a couple of games, one to the strong Bradford Owls by a sizeable score, in the early season, but they are heading for a string of wins now after finding themselves by dropping the Erie Tech team last Tuesday by 29 to 25.

Unlike Warren, the Colonels possess at least one standout star to offer the locals trouble in Bill McIntyre, lanky center, who hit the hoops for 17 points out of a possible 29 in their latest clash, while Warren this year, relies on a steady scoring aggregate with all as potential scorers but none really labeled as "hot".

With all the locals on the waiting list and no injuries to stem their growing tide, the Dragons are set for tonight intact and anxious to duplicate their last year's 40 to 32 victory over Strong Vincent.

Count Fleet Chosen Horse Of the Year

By SID FEDER.

New York, Dec. 17.—AP—By the most lop-sided margin in the eight-year history of their poll, the nation's sports writers today named Count Fleet "the horse of the year" for 1943—and the Count did less work for it than any of the seven previous winners.

Although he's been on vacation for six months and had only half-a-dozen trips to the post altogether in his victorious campaign, the Fleet came in all by himself with the year's top honors in the annual poll of writers and broadcasters conducted by the turf and sports digest to be published Monday in the Magazine's January issue.

Eclipsing even the sweep that hard-working Seabiscuit registered in 1938 and the "double" busy Whirlaway chalked up in '41 and '42, John D. Hertz's triple crown winner was named head man by 135 of the 143 voters, against two each for Market Wise and Slide Rul and one apiece for Thumbs Up and Occupy. The nomination was blank on two ballots.

Angott Is 13-5 Favorite For Ruffin Fight

By JACK HAND.

New York, Dec. 17.—AP—"Retiring" Sammy Angott of Washington, Pa. is a 13 to 5 favorite to give the lightweight title pretzel another twist tonight as the N. B. A.-blessed champ goes to the post against Bobby Ruffin, the Astoria (N. Y.) artist who holds a decision over Beau Jack, New York's titleholder.

Angott's laurels will not be on the block as both boys are coming in for the Madison Square Garden 10-rounder over the 135-pound division limit. Mike Jacobs expects 14,000 and $40,000.

It promises to be the most unorthodox spectacle since Lil' David rocked Goliath to sleep with a sling shot although not quite as decisive. Sammy is a hit and hold performer who doesn't get the cheers from the mob but usually gets the votes from the mob but usually gets the votes from the judges. Ruffin's style is just as confusing to the faithful.

The bout itself comes as an anti-climax to a week of bickering and public debates featuring Maurie Waxman, spokesman for Ruffin and Chick Wergeles, who handles Beau Jack's business affairs. It all revolves around the principals and payoff for a later Garden date that is supposed to bring a rematch of Bobby and the Beau but may be shuffled when tonight's returns are in.

SPORTS ROUND-UP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

Ne York, Dec. 17—(AP)—Attention football coaches: Since you'll all probably be counting heavily on freshmen next season, take a look at a few of these high school standouts of 1943 . . . Dinkey Brown, 175-pound halfback from Greenville, Miss., apparently took the season's scoring honors. He scored 30 touchdowns and place-kicked 47 extra points for 227 points in ten game . . . Dinkey also passed for 14 scores, two of them hen his team as trailing Holy Cross 19-7 in the last quarter of the New Orleans Toy Bowl game . . . in spite of that, Thomas "Shorty" McWilliams of Meridian was named the most outstanding player in the big eight conference (which has 14 teams). Shorty also made 30 touchdowns, averaging 36 yards on each scoring run, passed for eight more, averaged about 40 yards on punt and backed up the line on defense.

The Other Foot

Among the standout place-kickers of the prep season was Bob Fidler of Ashland, Ky., ho converted 31 extra points to equal his 1942 total. He missed 23 in two years . . . J. C. Kennard, captain and high scorer (138 points) for Ashland, carried the ball 36 times on his team's 37 attempts in one game and scored four times. He enlisted in the navy air corps to escape the college scouts . . . Then there's Sheldon Homer of Fallon, Nev., who carried the ball four times on end around plays against Sparks High and made four touchdowns on runs of 74, 56, 47 and 31 yards . . . He was just copying his coach, Wes Goodner, who once worked the play three times in one game to score for the University of Nevada.

Tough Decision

Bill Summers, the American League umpire, ran into a real puzzler this fall when a kid asked him what would be the verdict if a batsman hit a pitched ball, the ball broke in half and one piece was caught by the first baseman while the other half fell in safe territory . . . Instead of answering offhand, Summers secured a ball, wedged it firmly on a chopping block and took a whack at it with an axe . . . The axe cut through the cover and yarn, but when it struck the rubber core it bounced back . . . So Bill decided he wouldn't have to worry about that problem any more.

One-Minute Sports Page

With only seven exhibition games scheduled for next spring, the Dodgers likely will play one of them for the benefit of the Red Cross . . . Besides coaching at Union College and playing football for the pro Giants on Sundays, Mel Hein finds time to play basketball in the YMCA senior basketball league at Schenectady, N. Y. Mel scored 18 points in his first game. One of his teammates is Al Ciampa, who played on Columbia's Rose Bowl team . . . (Cap Royal, AP feature service sports

Speaking of Points

Passaro Is Honored At Faculty Party

Youngsville, Dec. 17. — The Youngsville School Faculty held their annual Christmas party Thursday evening of this week at the National Forge Club house. A delicious dinner was enjoyed prepared by a committee of members with tables appropriately decorated for the Christmas season. The party especially honored Joseph Passaro, Youngsville high school athletic coach. Mr. Passaro was presented a gift from his fellow members of the faculty. This evening (Friday) Mr. Passaro will act for the last time this season as local basketball coach when Sheffield plays basketball with Youngsville on the Youngsville court. His last day of teaching, for the present at least in Youngsville school, will be Monday of next week and on Dec. 28th he will leave Youngsville to take up his duties in the U. S. armed service when he will leave a host of local friends in the school and community.

Following the dinner Thursday evening the faculty enjoyed a merry evening with games and music. Youngsville school Christmas vacation begins on Wednesday and Dec. 22nd extends to Monday Jan. 3rd.

CHRISTMAS PROGRAMS

At the United Brethren Church next Sunday night, Dec. 19th at 7:30 p. m. the choir of thirty voices will sing the Christmas Cantata, "The Chorus of the Skies". Solo parts will be sung by Miss Treva McKinney, Mrs. Vivian Gilliland and Mr. Dallas Haight. There will be a ladies' two part chorus and a men's unison chorus. Soprano and contralto duet will be sung by Miss Audress Smith and Mrs. Vivian Gilliland.

The choir has been working faithfully for weeks under the direction of the pastor, Rev. C. M. McIntyre. The accompanist is Miss Treva McKinney. The offering will be for the Quinsy Orphanage and Home where 50 aged people and 150 children are domiciled by the church.

This service is not to be confused with Saron Lutheran Choir cantata which is given on the same day at 4:30 p. m. in the Saron Lutheran Church though both have the same title for their cantatas.

COMMUNITY SING

Under the sponsorship of the PTA, the annual community sing will be held in the high school auditorium Tuesday evening, December 21, with Miss Lilly Wood in charge.
